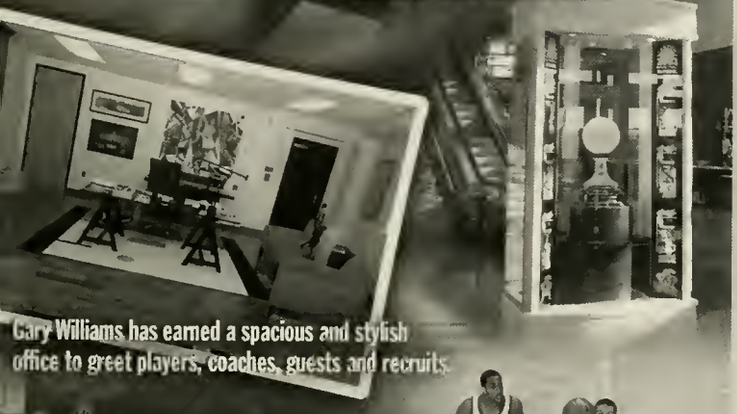
The NABC/Sears National Championship Trophy and Final Four jump circle from Atlanta are displayed in Comcast Center to celebrate the Terps' 2002 national title.



Gary Williams has earned a spacious and stylish office to greet players, coaches, guests and recruits.

On Jan. 18, 2003, No. 17 Maryland downed No. 1 Duke, 87-72, in the Terps' first slaying of a top-ranked team in Comcast Center.

Maryland's new home for Terrapin Athletics was completed in the fall of 2002 and has already provided three seasons of toppled attendance records and memories on the hardwood. Comcast Center provides a seating capacity of 17,950 fans for basketball, and serves as a campus site for university special events and select community events.

The Terrapins' first public basketball event was its 2002 Midnight Madness celebration, which has grown to one of the premiere student events of the academic year. In its first season, 281,057 fans were on hand to witness Terrapin basketball games for a per-game average of 17,566 as the Terrapins finished fifth in the nation. The Terps went on to finish fifth in the nation once again in 2003-04, with a school-record 287,200 spectators packing the arena for 16 full sellouts and a capacity per-game average of 17,950. Maryland drew 299,391 fans to Comcast Center during the 2004-05 season, again setting a school record. The Terps finished sixth in the nation in home attendance last season and has a three-year average of 17,168.

The honored jersey numbers of 15 of the greatest men's basketball players in school history, as well as banners commemorating the 2002 national championship and the 2002 National Coach of the Year Gary Williams, hang high above the court in Comcast Center's rafters. The 2004 ACC Tournament Championship banner was added two years ago.

Twenty suites provide enhanced viewing and entertainment capabilities for Maryland fans. Maryland's student section, affectionately known as "GARYLAND," accommodates 4,000 of the Terps' perennial ardent supporters. Students fill the first 10 rows that ring the arena floor and a majority of seats on the arena's west wall – which at an intimidating 35 degree incline provides the Terrapins' with a unique home court advantage.

Comcast Center houses the university's athletics administration offices and includes a 7,000-square-foot Academic Support Center, providing an enhanced study atmosphere for the school's nearly 750 student-athletes on 27 teams. An additional 1,500-seat gymnasium serves as home to the Terps' volleyball, gymnastics and wrestling teams, and Sprint Heritage Hall multi-purpose room is equipped to host banquets, press conferences, meetings and serve as a pregame restaurant suite overlooking the competition arena.

Comcast Center is an excellent place for alumni and fans to enjoy their favorite sports and share in their common Terrapin spirit. Visitors can learn about the men and women who have forged the Maryland Athletics program among the nation's elite as they stroll through the Terrapin Walk of Fame and History. The Terrapin Team Store, located just off the soaring three-level atrium lobby, allows visitors to outfit their pride.

Maryland has once again reclaimed the status of having the best student activities center and basketball arena in the country.

MARYLAND MADNESS

The Midnight Madness tradition that Charles "Lefty" Driesell started in College Park in 1971 continues today, and arguably, nobody does it better than the University of Maryland.

Perennially one of the Athletics Department's most popular events, Maryland Madness always features a music and laser light show and performances by the Terrapin Spirit Squad, the Gymkana Troupe and the dance team. More than 15,000 screaming fans have turned out annually to the event to catch a sneak preview of the Terps during their annual intrasquad scrimmage.

Head coach Gary Williams has made his spectacular Maryland Madness entrance a tradition. He rode out onto the court in a Harley-Davidson motorcycle in 2003, and drove Donnie Neuenberger's "Fear the Turtle" NASCAR one the floor in 2004.

A Gary Williams look-alike contest was part of the festivities in 2004, which was a fan-favorite during the evening's program. Maryland Madness was televised live on Comcast SportsNet in 2004 and 2006.

BASKETBALL ALUMNI

Former men's basketball players are among the most devoted followers of the Maryland team, and continue their involvement each year through various events, including an annual alumni game during Midnight Madness festivities and an alumni golf outing with Gary Williams.

Among the numerous participants who returned for the past several alumni games and Midnight Madness celebrations include: Mike Anderson, Earl Badu, Jeff Baxter, Adrian Branch, Neil Brayton, Wayne Bristol, LaRon Cephas, Bob Cutler, Matt Downing, Max Etienne, Norman Fields, Keith Gatlin, Ernie Graham, Jerry Greenspan, Joe Harrington, Bob Hart, Dave Henderson, Pete Holbert, Mo Howard, Speedy Jones, Donny Judd, Matt Kaluzienski, Mitch Kasoff, Matt Kovarik, Cedric Lewis, Derrick Lewis, Tom McMillen, Dutch Morley, Jim O'Brien, Brian Palmer, Matt Raydo, Johnny Rhodes, Tom Roy, Harvey Sanders, Ron Siegrist, Kurtis Shultz, Duane Simpkins, Garfield Smith, Jim Spiro, Terrell Stokes, Stan Swetnam, Mike Thibeault, Jap Trimble, and "The Wizard" Walt Williams.

BASKETBALL TRAVEL

The Maryland basketball team flies charter airplanes to nearly every game on its schedule. Pictured is a 50-passenger aircraft which transports the Terps from city to city throughout the season. This regional jet features two-by-two seating with no middle seats, and is the quietest flying jet in the world. It can cruise at 530 mph and up to 41,000 feet.

Charter flights make getting to, and coming back from, any destination easy and comfortable. This type of travel allows the Terps to be on campus and in class as soon as possible following road games, and overnight stays are minimized. The convenience and comfort of charter airplane travel allows for convenient, efficient, frequent service as well as maximized practice and study time.

IN THE COMMUNITY

The Terrapins and head coach Gary Williams are active members of the University of Maryland and greater Baltimore-Washington, D.C., community. The men's basketball team is involved in extensive charity, fund-raising and public speaking events throughout the year, particularly in the offseason.

In September of 2004, University of Maryland President C.D. Mote Jr. announced that Williams will co-chair the scholarship component of Maryland's ongoing $200 million fund-raising campaign. Williams served as the commencement speaking at the graduation proceedings for the Robert H. Smith School of Business in 2004. He has been heavily involved in the NABC's Coaches vs. Cancer efforts, a program that is a partnership between the National Association of Basketball Coaches and the American Cancer Society. Williams also has worked with Maryland grad Boomer Esiason and others to benefit the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, hosting charity basketball games and golf events. For the past two years, he has served as the honorary chairman for the Walk Far for N.A.A.R., which has raised more than one million dollars for the National Alliance of Autism Research. He has also chaired Salvation Army's FORE Kids golf tournament in 2003 and 2004, which raises proceedings for Washington D.C.'s youth

In the fall of 2004, Terrapin players and coaches joined with members of the Greek community in raising $21,000 for Ronald McDonald House Charities as they took part in the Hoops For Kids event at Ritchie Coliseum.

COMMITMENT TO EDUCATION

Under Gary Williams, the Maryland basketball program continues to place a high priority on education and the personal growth of its student-athletes. Senior Ekene Ibekwe has been named the recipient of the LeFrak Scholarship Award for the third consecutive year. The scholarship represents an endowment established by the Samuel J. and Ethel LeFrak Foundation, and is awarded annually to three Maryland student-athletes who exhibit extraordinary athletic, leadership and scholarship abilities.

Many former Terps continue to work toward their degrees while continuing to pursue professional basketball opportunities. Tahj Holden and Drew Nicholas were among the many former Maryland players in College Park over the summer working to earn their degrees. Keith Booth, a four-year starter and 1997 All-American, graduated in 2003 after pursuing a professional basketball career that included winning the NBA Championship in 1998, and is now one of Gary Williams' new assistant coaches. Former Terps Calvin McCall, Laron Profit and Terrell Stokes are among the recent men's basketball players to earn degrees from the University of Maryland. Maryland student-athletes all work toward completion of their college degree with the assistance of the Academic Support and Career Development Unit.

NBA SUPERSTAR STEVE FRANCIS

One of Terrapin basketball's most prominent alumni superstars in recent years, two-time NBA All-Star Steve Francis remains very close to Maryland's campus in the off-season. Francis, an All-American with the Terps in 1999 and the NBA Co-Rookie of the Year in 2000, maintains close ties with the Terrapin program and can be found in and around College Park during the summer playing pick-up, making public appearances, or in some cases, helping students in need.

Same of Maryland's students were temporarily without a home following a tornado in the fall af 2001 that swept through campus, but Francis was on hand to help. The NBA superstar did his part to aid in local relief efforts by offering a free meal to the near-700 students who reside in the University Courtyard apartments, which had been rendered unsafe after the disaster. Nearly 110 students got word of Francis' dinner and were in attendance at the UM Golf Course banquet facility. Francis joined the group for dinner, remarking to the group that he remembered people supporting him while he was a Maryland student and it was a small way that he could give back to those who helped him.

GAMEDAY AT

Maryland basketball games have become a loud and boisterous experience with capacity crowds since Gary Williams took over as head coach for the 1989-90 season. The Terrapins boast one of the most active and enthusiastic crowds in the country, which has helped carry the Maryland program to two Final Four appearances, the 2002 national championship, the 2004 ACC title and record-breaking attendance in each of the last four seasons at Comcast Center.

Maryland's home attendance numbers have ranked at least sixth in the nation in each of the last four seasons. After shattering all previous records in Comcast Center's first season with an overall attendance of 281,057 (average of 17,566), Maryland eclipsed that mark with 16 full sellouts in 2003-04 when it drew a per-game average of 17.970 to home games.

In 2004-05, Maryland set a school record when 299,391 fans came to see Maryland basketball games. Over the last four years, home attendance has skyrocketed to 1,159,609, with an average of 17,168 each time the Terps play in Comcast Center.

After averaging 13,377 fans and ranking 20th in the country in 1998, the Terps set a then-school record with a 14,474 average in 1999 while ranking 15th nationally. In 2002, Cole Field House's final season, Maryland continued to draw capacity numbers, averaging 14,166 fans and ranking 17th. The Terps drew 14,058 fans and ranked 18th in 2001. Those totals were only eclipsed by the Terps' move to Comcast Center, which ranks as the second-largest on-campus arena in the ACC.

For the past seven seasons, the Terps have set school records and ranked in the top 10 nationally in overall attendance, home and away. Maryland eclipsed its own overall record in five straight seasons and has played before at least 400,000 fans in eight consecutive seasons.

Maryland's school-record home attendance average in 2004 included 16 regular-season home games played before crowds that reached a capacity 17,950. Maryland played to 100 percent capacity for the entire season in the $125 million, 17,950-seat Comcast Center, after playing to 98 percent capacity in the arena's inaugural year.

Maryland has combined to fill its home arena to more than 96 percent capacity since the 1993-94 season.

More than 2.8 million people have watched men's basketball in College Park over the last 13 seasons, as the Terps have forged one of the most consistent and animated home crowds in the nation. The terps own a 169-28 (.858) home record in the last 13 seasons, with perfect marks in 2002 (15-0) and 1995 (16-0).

During Gary Williams' tenure as head coach, the Terps have achieved double-digit home victories in 16 out of 17 seasons.

NO BETTER Place To Be

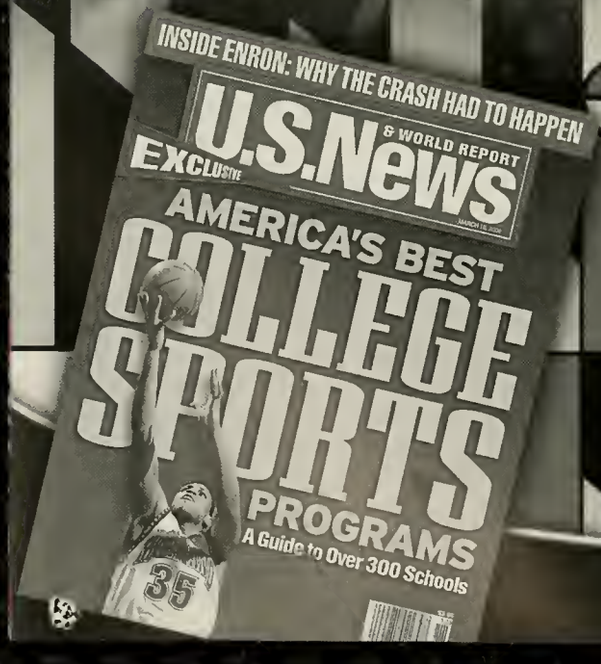
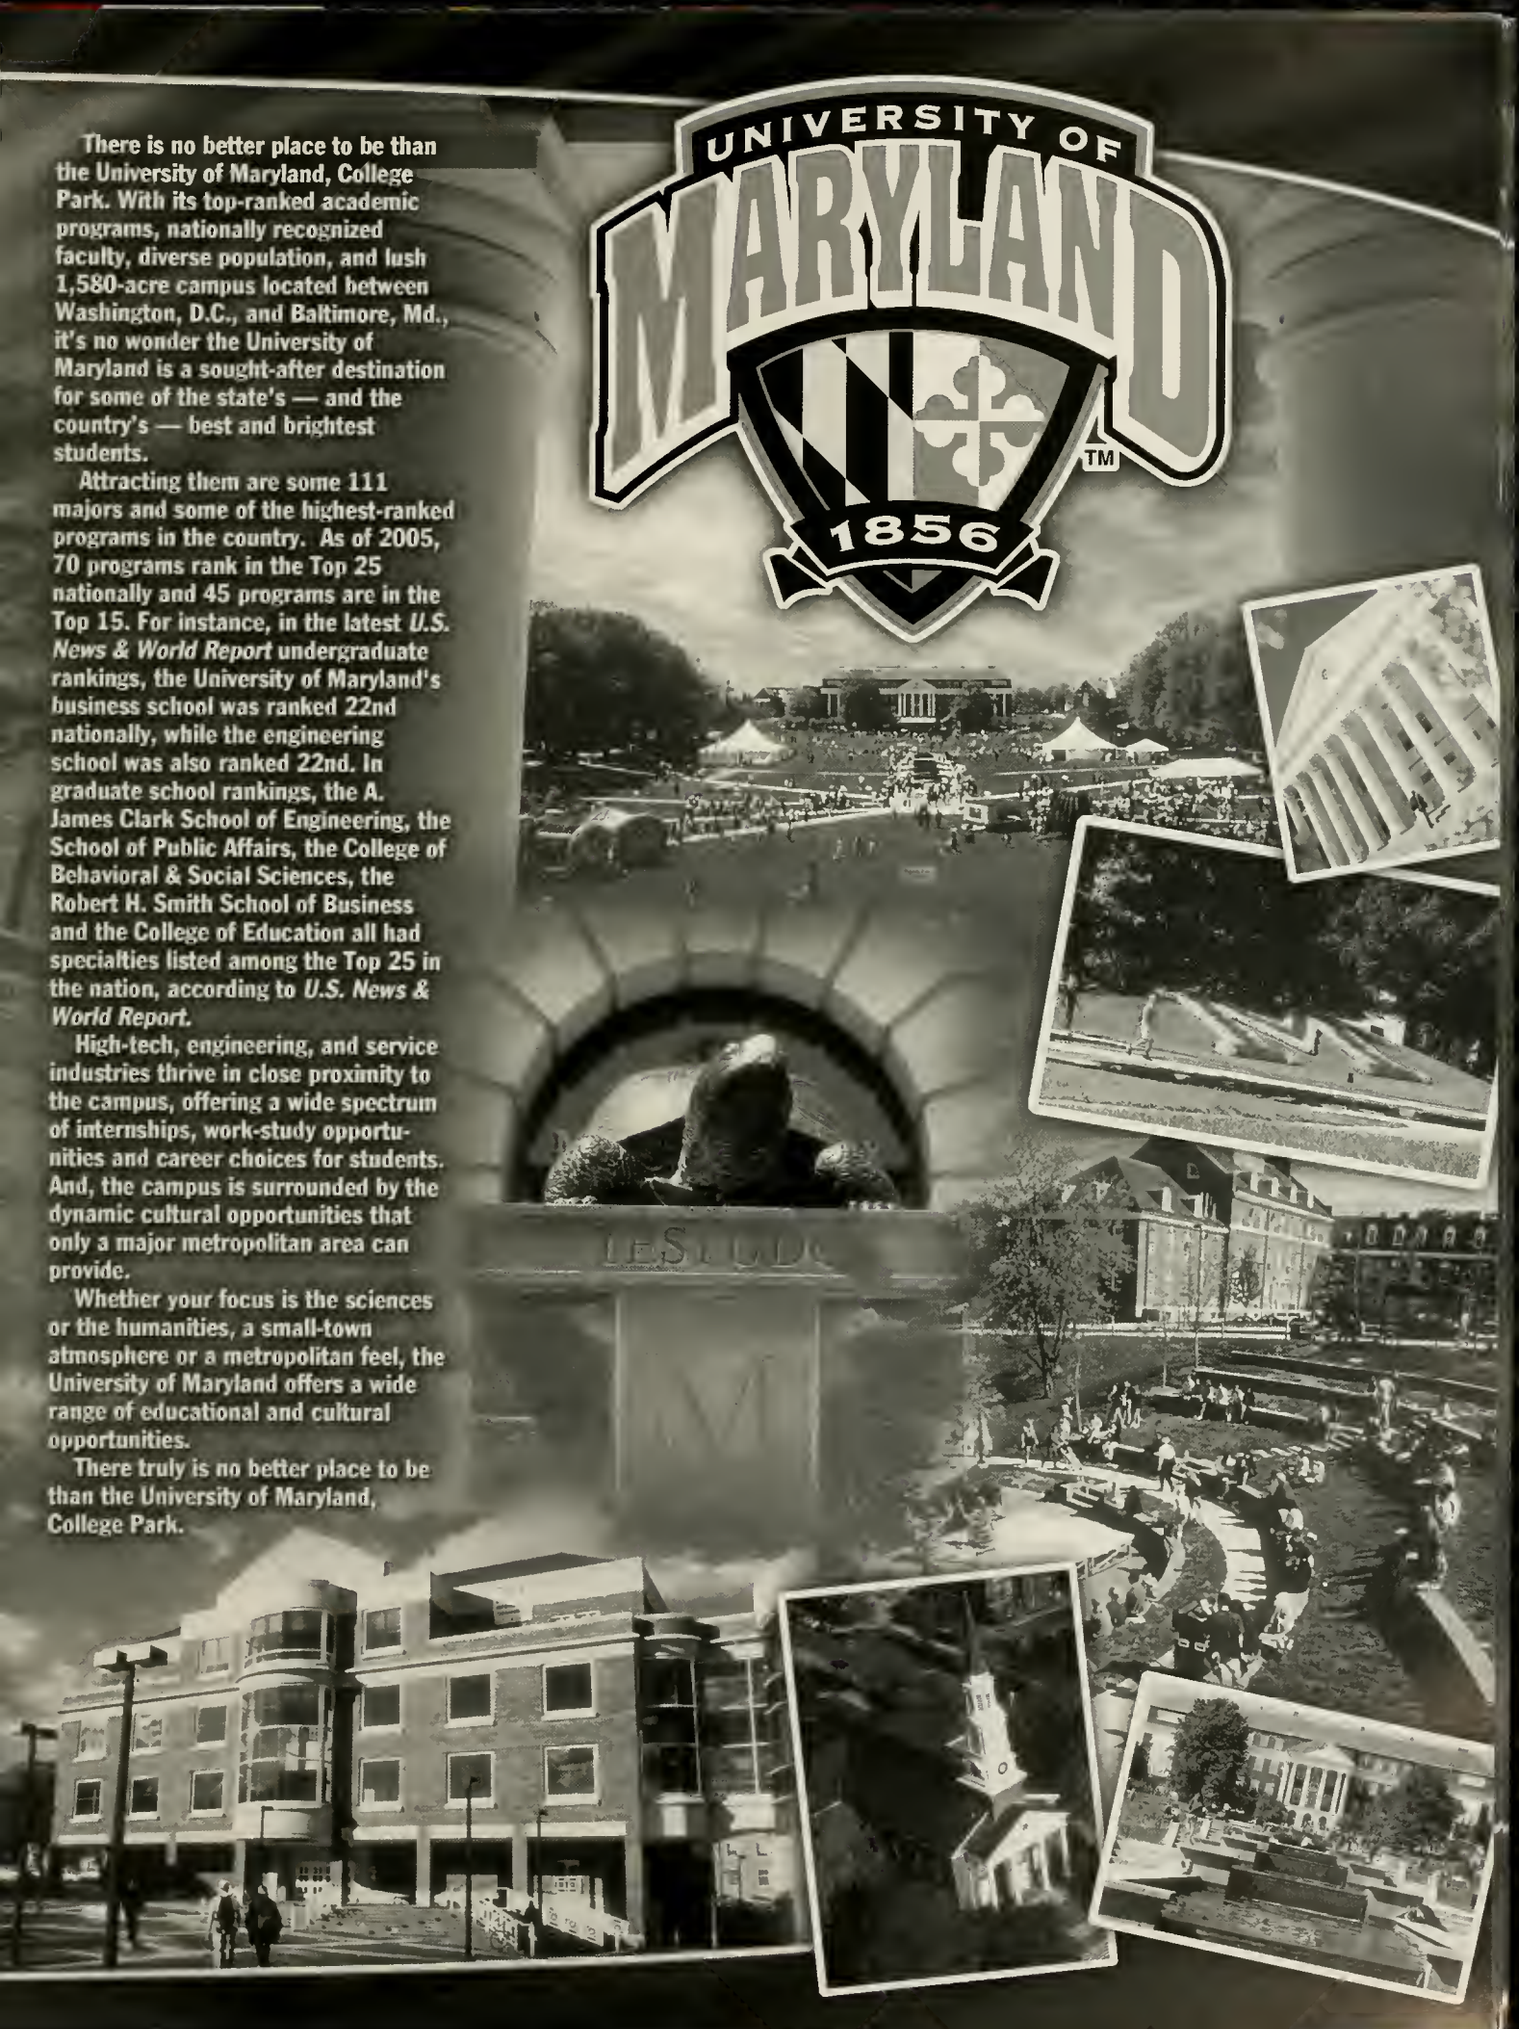
Terp Athletics Sixth in Comprehensive Ranking

The University of Maryland athletics department was ranked sixth in the nation in 2004 in a comprehensive rating system that determines the new Excellence in Athletics Cup, an award developed by the Laboratory for the Study of Intercollegiate Athletics at Texas A&M University.

The national award recognizes key areas including graduation rates, financial efficiency, equity effectiveness and competitive excellence.





There is no better place to be than the University of Maryland, College Park. With its top-ranked academic programs, nationally recognized faculty, diverse population, and lush 1,580-acre campus located between Washington, D.C., and Baltimore, Md., it's no wonder the University of Maryland is a sought-after destination for some of the state's — and the country's — best and brightest students.

Attracting them are some 111 majors and some of the highest-ranked programs in the country. As of 2005, 70 programs rank in the Top 25 nationally and 45 programs are in the Top 15. For instance, in the latest U.S. News & World Report undergraduate rankings, the University of Maryland's business school was ranked 22nd nationally, while the engineering school was also ranked 22nd. In graduate school rankings, the A. James Clark School of Engineering, the School of Public Affairs, the College of Behavioral & Social Sciences, the Robert H. Smith School of Business and the College of Education all had specialties listed among the Top 25 in the nation, according to U.S. News & World Report.

High-tech, engineering, and service industries thrive in close proximity to the campus, offering a wide spectrum of internships, work-study opportunities and career choices for students. And, the campus is surrounded by the dynamic cultural opportunities that only a major metropolitan area can provide.

Whether your focus is the sciences or the humanities, a small-town atmosphere or a metropolitan feel, the University of Maryland offers a wide range of educational and cultural opportunities.

There truly is no better place to be than the University of Maryland, College Park.

WASHINGTON, D.C.

The nation's capital and its major attractions are within 10 miles of Comcast Center. And the highly efficient Metro rail system, with a station at the campus doorstep, makes navigating the greater Washington, D.C., area easy. Campus shuttle buses serve the College Park Metro station, allowing easy access to one of the country's model transportation systems.

BALTIMORE

The 12th-largest city in the United States is often referred to as the "Charm City." Located just 35 miles north of the University of Maryland, its rejuvenation as an urban center is unprecedented. The Inner Harbor, its National Aquarium and tall ships, and the nearby Oriole Park at Camden Yards create an exciting, vibrant holiday atmosphere in a city that boasts one of the world's great sea ports.

ANNAPOLIS

The state capital of Maryland lies just 30 miles east of the University of Maryland. Long called the "sailing capital of the United States," Annapolis is located at the mouth of the Severn River on the Chesapeake Bay. The historic downtown area is known for its wonderful eating and shopping opportunities. There are few places in the world that rival the Chesapeake Bay area for its appealing qualities.

IN MEMORY OF # Marvin Perry

Marvin Perry was a person who made everyone who came in contact with him fell better. Marvin was one of those people who always gave back. He demonstrated that in his relationships with his family, Religion, Fraternity (Phi Delta Theta); Athletic Department, Terrapin Club, and the Men's Basketball program.

Personally, Marvin was my friend. While Marvin was undergoing treatment for cancer, he would call me after a tough loss. Marvin did not want any sympathy. He only wanted to make sure I was doing okay.

If Marvin would have been a basketball player, he would have been one of those special people who made all of his teammates better players and people.

He will always be missed, but not forgotten.

SEASON OUTLOOK

WILLIAMS TO BLEND SIX SENIORS WITH FIVE NEWCOMERS

The challenge for head coach Gary Williams and the 2006-07 Maryland Terrapins will be to combine the experience of six seniors with a talented incoming class of five newcomers. Williams, who enters his 18th season at Maryland, is excited about the unique blend the team offers and is looking forward to the upcoming campaign.

"It's an interesting team with a number of veteran players who have a lot of experience, but they're going to be pushed by some of our new guys for playing time and starting positions," said Williams. "That usually leads to some intense practices which I expect will make us a better team."

Maryland returns eight lettermen who have combined for 469 career games and 148 starts. The Terps return 58 percent of their scoring and 63 percent of their rebounding from last season. Four starters return off last year's 19-13 squad which finished 5-1 in league games decided by four points or less. Williams knows that experience can pay dividends in the Atlantic Coast Conference this season.

"Our upperclassmen know what it takes to win and beat good teams and how to close out tight games," remarked Williams. "That's where their experience pays off and where they can be leaders for our younger players. It's not about just having the talent, but being willing to put in the work each day."

In addition to their on-court abilities, Williams will rely on his seniors to mentor a talented incoming class that is making the transition to collegiate basketball in the ACC. "College is a different game than what they're used to in high school, and that's where the leadership from the upperclassmen and the coaching staff can help expedite their learning curve," said Williams. "Until you get them in practice and game situations, you really don't know what you have."

If the Terps are to extend their current streak of 13 consecutive post-season appearances, Williams knows they'll have to address a few key areas which hurt them a year ago. "We have always been able to score since I've been here, but last year we took a step back defensively," noted Williams. "We need to regain that defensive intensity and take care of the ball at the offensive end of the floor. Those two areas will be key to our success this season."

Despite the setback in scoring defense and field goal percentage allowed, the Terps continued their dominance defending in front of the rim. Maryland averaging 6.0 blocked shots per game, which led the league and was 13th best in the country. It was the eighth consecutive season in which Maryland finished either first or second in the ACC in blocked shots.

With depth and talent at every position, combined with a renewed effort on defense, the Terrapins are looking to make a move up the conference ladder. After narrowly missing the NCAA Tournament the past two seasons, the hard-charging Williams expects the Terps to be a force this season. "All of our guys put in a lot of work over the summer to get better individually and collectively as a team, and I expect it to pay off for us this season."

"IT'S AN INTERESTING TEAM WITH A NUMBER OF VETERAN PLAYERS WHO HAVE A LOT OF EXPERIENCE, BUT THEY'RE GOING TO BE PUSHED BY SOME OF OUR NEW GUYS FOR PLAYING TIME AND STARTING POSITIONS." - GARY WILLIAMS

FRONTCOURT

Maryland boasts one of the most athletic and experienced frontcourts in the league. Veteran starters figure to see the bulk of the minutes up front, but a few newcomers will be expected to provide depth and contribute off the bench.

Senior Ekene Ibekwe returns for his senior season after leading the team in rebounding as a junior. He was third on the team in scoring with 11.1 points per game and finished seventh in the ACC in blocked shots per game (1.34). Ibekwe enters his senior year seventh on the school's all-time blocked shots list (142). After opting out of the NBA draft this summer, he participated in the 2006 FIBA World Championships as a member of the Nigerian national team.

"Ikene had a great summer playing against international competition, including a solid performance against Dirk Nowitzki and other top-flight opponents," said Williams. "He's one of the most talented and experienced players in all of college basketball, and I expect big things from him this season."

Ibekwe teamed with James Gist to form one of the most formidable defensive front lines in all of college basketball last season. Gist was fifth in the ACC, with 1.59 blocks per contest. He came on late in the season, staring 15 of Maryland's final 17 contests and is looking build upon a sophomore campaign in which he averaged 8.4 points and 4.8 rebounds per contest.

Senior Will Bowers is another experienced frontcourt performer who will figure into the Terps' success this season. A physical presence with a soft shooting touch around the rim, Bowers has shown improvement in each of the past three seasons and his coach expects that trend to continue.

"Will is one of the biggest players in the ACC," noted Williams. "He contributed in a backup role for us last year and I look for him to push for increased playing time. He is a guy who can really help us up front and make us a better team."

Gini Chukura and Dave Neal provide experienced depth up front. Chukura, a senior, enters his third year in the program after joining the club as a walk-on in 2004-05. He played in 11 games as a junior and displays a great feel for the game. Chukura has made his presence felt on the glass and provides the Terps with a solid post defender.

Neal was the only freshman on the team last year and saw action in 13 contests. A versatile performer at the offensive end of the floor, Neal will vie for increased playing time this season.

Three newcomers are also in the mix up front for Maryland. Junior Bambale Osby along with freshmen Jerome Burney, and Landon Milbourne will give Williams plenty of options along the front line. After spending his freshman season at New Mexico, Osby played for Paris junior college in Texas in 2005-06. He is expected to give the team another physical option in the paint.

Milbourne is a slasher with the ability to get to the basket. Burney makes his mark on the defensive end. He has the ability to use his size to match up against taller opponents, but can utilize his quickness to cover quicker players as well. All three newcomers should figure into the rotation up front this season.

BACKCOURT

Three seniors will anchor an experienced backcourt, while two highly-touted freshmen will push for playing time at guard. The versatility of the unit provides Williams with the ability to utilize a number of combinations in the backcourt.

Despite playing out of position at point guard last year, senior D.J. Strawberry averaged 10.3 points per game and led the squad with 128 assists. He earned Honorable Mention All-ACC Defensive Team plaudits last season, ranking sixth in the conference with 1.6 steals per contest. Strawberry was just the eighth Terp in the last 20 years to lead the team in both steals and assists. His 4.0 steals per game ranked seventh in the ACC and he ranks 14th all-time at Maryland with 133 career thefts.

"D.J. gave us everything that he had last year," said Williams. "We asked him to play the point guard position and it may have taken away from his natural slashing ability, but in the end it has made him a better all-around player."

Senior Mike Jones came on late last year, starting the last 15 games for Maryland. Jones averaged 13.7 points and 4.4 rebounds during that span. He led the team with 61 three-pointers, including seven against Temple. Jones enters his senior season ninth at UMD with 122 career triples. He shot a team-best 41 percent from three-point range and led the Terps as he connected on 90 percent of his free throw attempts. He scored in double figures 17 times and knocked down at least one triple in 28 games.

"Mike became a starter in January and showed everyone that he is a great shooter," noted Williams. "He worked on his conditioning over the summer which will help maintain that same energy at the defensive end of the floor."

Parrish Brown made an impact in his first season with Maryland, quickly providing a spark off the bench for Williams. Brown played in 29 games and proved to be a very valuable reserve for the Terps who saw his playing time steadily increase as the season progressed. He dished out at least five assists on three different occasions and scored in double figures twice from the point guard position.

Freshmen Eric Hayes and Greivis Vasquez are expected to help steady the point for the Terps and help cut down on turnovers that hurt the team last year. Both players enjoyed decorated prep careers and are looking to make the transition to the college game. Their ability to contribute this season will be a big factor in determining the Terps' long-term success.

COACHING STAFF

The theme of returning performers and fresh faces applies to the coaching staff, where a familiar individual has returned to College Park. Chuck Driesell, a four-year letterwinner (1981-85) who played under his father "Lefty", joined the staff this offseason. He brings 16 years of collegiate coaching experience to the Terrapin staff. "Chuck saw the game as a player from a coach's perspective and has established himself as a proven recruiter," said Williams.

Michael Adams returns for his second season on staff with Williams, as does former Terrapin standout Keith Booth. "Michael and Keith are seasoned college coaches who were both great college players," noted Williams. "They are both well-rounded coaches who have made an impact in recruiting, scouting, and on the floor."

The combination on the bench has Williams excited about the future. "Any time you assemble a coaching staff you want to find individuals who bring something unique to the program," he said. "Whenever we have success on the court or with our recruiting efforts, it's because of our entire staff, and I'm excited about what this group can do."

SCHEDULE

As a member of the Atlantic Coast Conference, the Maryland schedule is once again one of the most difficult in the country. The Terps will face 13 opponents who participated in postseason play last year. The schedule also puts the Terrapins in the national spotlight, as 13 games will be televised nationally.

"We're coming off a 19-win season against a very difficult schedule, and this year's challenge is no different," said Williams. "With the early start to the year we're going to get better as we move along, but I expect us to find out a lot about our team in November and December because of the quality of our schedule."

Maryland's first game against Hampton on November 7 marks the earliest start in school history. That game in College Park is part of the 2006 2K Sports College Hoops Classic. The Terrapins host the College Park Regional, which also includes the University of New Orleans and Vermont, November 7, and 8. The winner of the two-day regional will advance to Madison Square Garden for the championship rounds on November 16 and 17. Michigan State, Texas, and St. John's join Maryland as regional hosts of the 16-team tournament.

The Terrapins visit Illinois on November 28 as part of the annual ACC/Big 10 Challenge, before taking on Notre Dame in the BB&T Classic at Verizon Center. Maryland opens the ACC schedule with a December 10 matchup at Boston College. After visiting the Eagles, the Terrapins will enjoy a seven-game homestand, their longest since the 1976-77 season. Other non-conference opponents include American, Fordham, High Point, Iona, Missouri-Kansas City, Mount St. Mary's, Siena, and Winthrop,

In the 16-game ACC schedule, the Terrapins will have home-and-home matchups with Clemson, Duke, Florida State, N.C. State, and Virginia. In league action the Terrapins will entertain Georgia Tech, Miami, and North Carolina at Comcast Center. Maryland will play its only regular-season meetings against Boston College, Virginia Tech, and Wake Forest on the road.

HEAD COACH • MARYLAND '68
18TH SEASON AT MARYLAND (353-191, .649)
29TH SEASON OVERALL (560-319, .637)

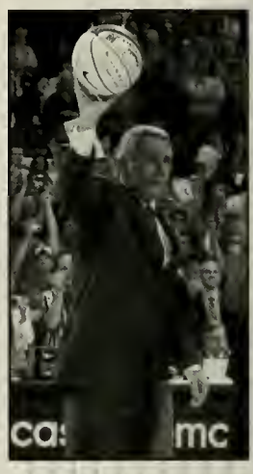
Since returning to the College Park campus in 1989, Gary Williams (Maryland '68) has led his alma mater's basketball program from a period of troubled times to an era of national prominence. With 11 NCAA Tournament berths in the last 13 seasons, seven Sweet Sixteen appearances, a pair of consecutive Final Four showings, and the 2002 national championship – the first of its kind in Maryland basketball history – Williams and his staff have literally forged what is now more than a decade of dominance in college basketball's most storied and competitive conference.

Now, with 353 victories as Maryland's head coach, Williams is the school's all-time winningest head coach, eclipsing the mark of former Terp mentor Charles "Lefty" Driesell, who amassed 348 victories in 17 seasons from 1969-70 to 1985-86. The Terrapins have averaged 22.8 wins per year since the 1994-95 season.

With 560 career victories in 28 seasons overall, Williams is the ninth-winningest active head coach in NCAA Division I men's basketball.

Williams was heralded as the national and ACC Coaach of the Year during the Terps' 2002 championship run. He is one of just 12 active coaches in America to boast a national title and one of only three in the conference. He has become the fourth-winningest coach in ACC history after transforming the Maryland program into one of the nation's most formidable, and building a Baltimore-D.C. area following that has consistently resulted in packed arenas. After demolishing attendance records with sellout crowds during the final years of Maryland basketball at Cole Field House, Williams' Terps have finished in the top ten nationally in each of the last four seasons, ranking fifth in 2002-03 and 2003-04, and sixth in the country in each of the last two seasons. The Terrapins played before 291,961 fans last season, averaging crowds of 17,174 and selling out 15 home contests.



- In June of 2005, Williams received the University of Maryland's highest alumni honor as he, Connie Chung, Renaldo Nehemiah and others were inducted into the University of Maryland's Alumni Hall of Fame. Williams was inducted into the University of Maryland's Sports Hall of Fame in 1999.
- In January of 2005, Williams was named one of Washingtonian Magazine's 'Washingtonians of the Year.' He joined others such as Washington D.C. mayor Anthony Williams and Tim Russert of NBC's Meet The Press on the prestigious list.
- In September of 2004, Williams joined Washington Redskins great Darrell Green and Washington Sports and Entertainment Chairman and CEO Abe Pollin as the inaugural inductees into the new Greater Washington Sports Hall of Champions.
- Williams was one of only five coaches in NCAA Division I to have led his team to 11 consecutive NCAA Tournaments, from 1994-2004. The Terrapins' 2006 appearance in the National Invitation Tournament marked the 13th consecutive postseason berth for Williams' teams.
- In guiding his 2004 Terrapins to the ACC Tournament title, Williams became the third coach in league history to lead his team to victory over the top three seeds: No. 3 Wake Forest, No. 2 NC State and No. 1 Duke. By overcoming a 21-point first half deficit against the Wolfpack, Williams engineered the greatest comeback in the 52-year history of the ACC Tournament.
- He is one of seven college basketball coaches since 1980 to guide his alma mater to the Final Four and was the first since 1974 to lead his alma mater to a national title.
- A winner of nearly 70 percent of his NCAA Tournament games while at Maryland, he ranks ninth among active coaches in NCAA Tournament winning percentage overall (26-13, .667), and ninth in wins (26).
- With a victory over No. 1 Florida in Gainesville on Dec. 10, 2003, he is the winningest coach in the nation against top-ranked opponents (6).
- With his 500th win at NC State on March 2, 2003, the 1968 Maryland grad became the sixth ACC alumnus in conference history to amass as many as 500 coaching victories.
- He earned his 550th career win with an 81-55 victory over American University on December 23, 2005.
- With 353 wins as Maryland's head coach, Williams is only the sixth mentor in Atlantic Coast Conference history to pass the 300-victory milestone.
- Williams earned his 143rd victory in the ACC with an 86-74 win over Georgia Tech on January 25, 2006, moving past Frank McGuire into third place on the league's all-time wins list. Williams owns 147 career ACC victories.

- With 147 career ACC victories as Maryland's coach, Williams surpassed Frank McGuire (North Carolina and South Carolina) last season as the third-winningest ACC coach in terms of conference victories. Only McGuire, Dean Smith (364, North Carolina) and Mike Krzyzewski (264, Duke) have more ACC conference wins.

NATIONAL PROMINENCE

For Williams, now in his 18th season, the accomplishments of the past 13 years have been particularly sweet for a coach whose roots with the program extend to his playing days in the late 1960s, and whose earliest seasons as head coach were tormented by NCAA sanctions he inherited. The two-time Final Four architect and ACC championship mentor is himself a Maryland alumnus, who found glory for a program whose history is filled with a myriad of some of the most prominent names in college basketball annals: Shue, Lucas, Elmore, McMillen, Albert King, Bias, Buck Williams and Walt Williams.

Guiding his Maryland team to the 2004 ACC title remains a poignant source of pride for Williams and all of the Terrapin faithful. Coaching the most youth-filled team in college basketball to an incredible weekend of success, in a year where the ACC was rated the nation's most competitive conference, is not an accomplishment soon to be forgotten by Maryland's fans or the coach himself. The weekend featured three hard-fought, instant-classic contests. In the end, the Terrapins emerged victorious, with their first tournament title since 1984 and only the third in the storied history of the Maryland program. In only three days – three days that were the result of a season's worth of determination, diligence and lessons learned – the Terps were transformed from a team teetering on the edge of the NCAA bubble to a No. 4 seed in the national tournament.

The excitement of the 2004 ACC Tournament conjured images of the Terrapins' NCAA title run only two years earlier. Williams followed a remarkable 2001 Final Four season by compiling the most wins in Maryland history, going 32-4 in 2002. He engineered the school's best regular season ever (25-3), its first outright ACC regular season title since 1980, its first No. 1 seed in an NCAA Tournament, and a return to the Final Four. He earned billing as the league's coach of the year for the first time in his career and later was honored with various national awards, the Victor Award and the New York Athletic Club's Winged Foot Award as the coach of the national champions.

Capping his personal ascent to college basketball's highest pinnacle, Williams added author to his resume in summer 2002 by completing an autobiography entitled Sweet Redemption, with award-winning journalist David Vise. The book captures the essence of Williams' arrival at Maryland, the Terps' re-building efforts, their return to the NCAA Tournament in 1994 and their tournament climb ever since.

The rise of the Maryland program has run parallel with Williams' ascent among the most notable in the collegiate coaching fraternity. Williams was one of only five coaches to boast a string of 11 consecutive trips to the NCAA Tournament from 1994-2004. He has produced more than 20 wins in nine of his last 12 seasons, and a school-record eight straight from 1996-97 to 2003-04. Williams' 15 career 20-win seasons places him eighth among active coaches.

Williams, 353-191 at Maryland, boasts a 560-319 overall record including four years at American (1979-82), four at Boston College (1983-86) and three at Ohio State (1987-89). In 28 seasons as a Division I head coach, Williams has coached in 14 NCAA Tournaments and guided nine different teams to the NCAA Sweet Sixteen. One of 26 coaches ever to take three different schools to the NCAA Tournament, Williams has guided teams to the NIT or NCAA Tournament at each of his four coaching stops.

During his run of 11 straight NCAA Tournaments at Maryland, he has forged his way to becoming the winningest NCAA Tournament coach in Maryland history with 22 wins and 10 losses – nearly 70 percent.

TERP ALUMNUS

Williams is one of just two 500-win coaches who now engineer the programs at their respective alma maters, along with Jim Boeheim at Syracuse. With Roy Williams of North Carolina, those three also are the only active coaches to direct their alma maters to at least one Final Four appearance, with Gary Williams and Boeheim making multiple showings with their alma maters.

In 2001, Williams became just the sixth coach since 1980 to direct his alma mater to the Final Four. A year later, he became the first coach since 1974 to guide his alma mater to a national title. Williams is the only active coach to take his alma mater to consecutive Final Four appearances. He is only the eighth mentor ever to guide his alma mater to consecutive Final Fours, and the first since Houston's Guy Lewis in 1982, 1983 and 1984.

A former Terrapin point guard, Williams was a starter under coach Bud Millikan during the 1965, 1966 and 1967 seasons. He was the team captain as a senior and still lists one of his most memorable basketball moments as his experience as a spectator at the 1966 national championship game conducted at Maryland's legendary Cole Field House, between Texas Western and Kentucky.

The former Terrapin student-athlete is also noted as one of just eight former ACC basketball players ever to return to the league as a head coach. On March 2, 2003, Williams became the sixth ACC alumnus to win at least 500 games as Drew Nicholas nailed a buzzer-beating 3-pointer to down NC State, 68-65. With 353 wins as Maryland's head coach, Williams is only the sixth ACC coach to reach the 300 milestone.

WILLIAMS ERA

Inducted into the University of Maryland Sports Hall of Fame in 1999 and the University's Alumni Hall of Fame in 2005, Williams has placed his alma mater's program back among the elite in the always-competitive Atlantic Coast Conference. The Terps have become synonymous with Duke and North Carolina among the league's most dominant programs, and nationally have become a fixture among weekly polls.

Another success story during the Williams Era at Maryland was the coveted home-court win streak over non-conference foes, which spanned more than 12 years and 87 games. Maryland did not lose a non-league home game under Williams for well over a decade since just his fourth home game as head coach: Dec. 12, 1989 vs. Coppin State. The Terps went undefeated against non-conference foes during the final 12 years of competition at Cole Field House, and ran the record to 87 games before a five-point loss to No. 14 Florida on Dec. 14, 2002 at Comcast Center.

The decade of the 1990s was certainly a decade of resurgence for the Maryland basketball team.

Since Williams' arrival as head coach in the summer of 1989, the Terps have soared to a level of national prominence unmatched during the first century of the program – and unmatched by the vast majority of programs nationwide. Included among the many superior accomplishments during the Williams Era are: a school-record 11 straight NCAA Tournament appearances (1994-04) which include consecutive trips to the Final Four, a national crown and seven Sweet Sixteen appearances; the 2004 ACC title; 10 consecutive upper-division finishes in the ACC including runner-up distinction in 1999, 2000 and 2003; an outright regular season ACC title in 2002 and a shared one in 1995; a school-record 28 victories during the 1999 season which was shattered again with 32 in 2002; four NBA lottery picks, one national Player of the Year, a senior of the year and two ACC Players of the Year; an ACC Tournament MVP; and the first recipient of the nation's Senior CLASS Award.

Added for good measure are a NBA Co-Rookie of the Year in Steve Francis (2000), and a preseason top-five ranking three times in four seasons (1999-2002). The result is a program and a coach who have reached icon status.

Williams is the only head coach in school history to guide the Terps to 13 postseason tournament appearances. After guiding his first two Maryland teams to winning records and overcoming an NCAA probationary period resulting from the previous regime, he guided the Terps to an NCAA Tournament appearance in just his fifth season, 1994, and earned a share of the ACC regular-season title in just his sixth, 1995.

Williams' past 13 seasons have brought Maryland from striving for contention in the Atlantic Coast Conference to the realization of the tournament title in 2004; from endeavors to become nationally competitive to the reality of 11 NCAA berths, seven Sweet Sixteen appearances, two Final Fours and of course, the 2002 NCAA championship.

In 2003, Williams took a group of experienced but mostly untested Terps to a third-straight Sweet Sixteen. Along the way, the squad earned its fourth final Top 10 ranking in five seasons, posted a seventh-straight 20-win season, recorded a school-record sixth straight finish in the upper echelon of the ACC by capturing second place, and posted a school-record sixth straight season of double-digit ACC victories. The Terrapins helped Williams to his 500th career coaching victory on March 2, 2003.

The 2002 championship itself was a product of maturity and steadfast dedication to a common goal – and included a magical ride through the final season of play at venerable Cole Field House. Williams molded a cast of seven returning players from its national semifinalists of 2001, while senior captains Lonny Baxter, Juan Dixon and Byron Mouton keyed a consistent effort from the beginning of practice in October, through an undefeated (15-0) home campaign at Cole, all the way to a net-cutting evening at the Georgia Dome on April 1. The Terrapins overcame personal obstacles and handled the ACC's and the NCAA Tournament's stiffest challenges. After winning the ACC regular season crown with a 15-1 record, the Terps' ascent to the national championship game included successive victories over perennial powers Wisconsin, Kentucky, Connecticut and Kansas – and a 64-52 defeat of Indiana in the title game. Maryland won the first national title in school history, and earned its very first No. 1 ranking, after becoming the first team in NCAA history to reach the championship game by defeating the highest possible seed in every round.

A year earlier, the Terrapins began the season with a lofty No. 5 ranking by the Associated Press and finished with the No. 4 spot by USA Today/ESPN. The Terps butted heads weekly during an ACC schedule that included five nationally ranked teams, but found their stride late in the year to win 10 of their last 12 games. Of those 10, seven nationally ranked foes fell in the Terps' path to the Final Four, with their only losses coming to eventual NCAA and ACC champion Duke. Local rival Georgetown was dispatched in the Sweet Sixteen, and an 87-73 win over No. 2-ranked and top-seeded Stanford earned Maryland its first NCAA regional title.

The 2000 season may have been one of Williams' greatest coaching accomplishments ever – guiding a "rebuilding" Terrapin team to 25 wins, a second straight second-place finish in the ACC and its first trip to the conference tournament final since 1984. All with a freshman point guard (Steve Blake), three first-year starters (Baxter, Blake, Dixon) and only one senior following the loss of three players to the NBA draft. Two years later, those three first-year starters would become seasoned veterans and national champions.

Four years after tying for his first ACC regular season championship in 1995, Williams led Maryland to a then school-record 28 victories and a school-record 13 ACC victories during the 1999 season. The Terps finished the season ranked No. 5 by the Associated Press – then the highest final ranking since 1975 and only the third time in school history that the program had earned a top five final national ranking. Maryland peaked at No. 2 as it won its first 10 games of the season, and its No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament matched the highest tournament seed in school history.

Williams has been voted as a national coach of the year finalist five times, including his selection in 2002 as the national coach of the year by Basketball America and CBSSportsline.com, and in 2001 by Playboy. Besides the ACC coaching honor, other accolades after the 2002 championship season included the Winged Foot Award as presented by the N.Y. Athletic Club; the Victor Award as presented by the National Academy of Sports Editors; the Harry Litwack Award as Eastern Coach of the Year, presented annually by the Herb Good Club of Philadelphia; and Seaboard Region Coach of the Year honors as named by Basketball Times and Eastern Basketball. In 1998, ACC Athlete Magazine voted him as the ACC Coach of the Year. He received the same honor from College Hoops Illustrated in 2000. Following Maryland's 1997 season, when the Terps advanced to the NCAA Tournament and finished with a 9-7 record in the ACC, he was named as the Seaboard Region Coach of the Year by Basketball Times and Eastern Basketball. He was honored as the district coach of the year in 1981, and in 1983 he was named as the Eastern Coach of the Year.

Williams has cemented his legacy as one of America's greatest recruiters and college coaches — a statement backed not just by consecutive Final Four appearances or 24 winning records in 28 seasons, but by 28 NBA draft choices and the numerous former assistant coaches who now guide their own programs. Williams has mentored seven first-round selections and six NBA lottery picks: Walt Williams (#7 pick, 1992), Joe Smith (#1, 1995), Steve Francis (#2, 1999) and Chris Wilcox (#8, 2002); and Ohio State standouts Jim Jackson (#5, 1992) and Dennis Hopson (#3, 1987). Two-time European player of the year Sarunas Jasikevicius played for four years under Williams and starred in Europe before signing with the Indiana Pacers in the summer of 2005.

Williams was hired on June 13, 1989. He inherited a team that had won only nine games the year before and finished in last place in the ACC. Displaying his coaching abilities immediately, he helped the Terps to 19 wins while advancing to the second round of the National Invitation Tournament – and making him the first coach in school history to lead a team into the postseason in his first year. In addition, Maryland's 10-game improvement in the win column during Williams' first season was the largest in school history and second largest in the annals of the ACC by a first-year coach. Only the legendary Press Maravich, who improved NC State's winning ledger by 13 games in his inaugural season (1965), can boast a higher first-year improvement in the win column.

A 1968 graduate of Maryland, Williams lettered as the Terps' starting point guard from 1965-67 under head coach Bud Millikan, serving as team captain during his senior season. It was as a player in the ACC that Williams began developing his basketball philosophy. Playing beside three-year teammates Joe Harrington and Jay McMillen, he studied the game under Millikan, and it was then that he developed his penchant for the full-court pressure defenses for which his teams are now known. He learned his half court man-to-man defense from Millikan, who learned from the legendary Hank Iba. The fast-breaking offense that Williams' teams employ is similar to the style Vic Bubas' Duke teams used when Williams was a player.

PATH BACK TO COLLEGE PARK

Williams began his coaching career alongside Harrington as graduate students at Maryland under freshman coach Tom Davis. The 1969 freshman team finished with a 12-4 record as Williams bonded with Davis in a relationship that would serve him well as his coaching career progressed.

After earning a degree in business, he continued his coaching career as an assistant at Woodrow Wilson High School in Camden, N.J. After one year, he took over as the head coach and guided his first team to a perfect 27-0 record and the state title. Williams has called that season "the ultimate — there wasn't another game to win." Upon winning the NCAA West Region championship in 2001, he fondly recalled his championship at Camden as the "only other time I've ever got to cut down a net."

Williams spent one more year at Woodrow Wilson before accepting an invitation from Davis in 1972 to become an assistant at Lafayette College. While an assistant at Lafayette, Williams also served as the head soccer coach. In 1978, Williams accompanied Davis to Boston College. After one year there, Williams became the head coach at American University.

Williams immediately began making his mark. His 1981 squad set the still-standing school record for victories with a 24-6 mark, won the East Coast Conference championship, and played in the NIT. Williams was named the district coach of the year. American returned to postseason play the next season as the Williams-led Eagles went 21-9 and played in the NIT for the second consecutive year. Only once prior to Williams' arrival had AU attended a postseason tournament, and the Eagles have not returned since. Williams' four-year record at AU was 72-42.

In 1983, Williams succeeded Davis at Boston College. He was once again an instant success, posting a 25-7 record and leading the Eagles to the regular-season championship of the Big East in his first season. Making his first appearance in the NCAA Tournament, Williams directed the Eagles to the Sweet 16. He finished third in the balloting for national coach of the year, and was honored again as the Eastern Coach of the Year by his peers. He went on to duplicate that NCAA Tournament success again in 1985, leading B.C. back to the Sweet Sixteen.

In 1987, Williams accepted the head coaching job at Ohio State, becoming the 10th basketball coach in that school's illustrious history. He succeeded Eldon Miller and once again enjoyed success. In three years, the Buckeyes made three postseason appearances. His first squad defeated then-No. 1 and unbeaten Iowa (coached by Tom Davis) in the regular season, in what would be the first of many giant-killings. During Williams' three-year term at Ohio State, OSU defeated a second-ranked Purdue team, perennial power Kansas and highly regarded Big Ten powers Michigan and Illinois. Each of Williams' three Ohio State teams advanced to postseason play, and he laid the groundwork for the highly successful teams that followed when he left Columbus for College Park.

WILLIAMS IN THE COMMUNITY

The Terrapins' head coach is an active member of the University of Maryland and greater Baltimore-Washington, D.C. community. Williams is involved in extensive charity, fund-raising and public speaking events throughout the year, particularly in the offseason.

In September of 2004, University President C.D. Mote Jr. announced that Williams will co-chair the scholarship component of Maryland's ongoing $200 million fund-raising campaign. In addition to a pledge of a half-million dollars of his own for academic scholarships at the university, Williams will represent the University at various functions and perform various networking duties to spearhead the fund-raising effort.

Williams served as the commencement speaker at the graduation proceedings for the Robert H. Smith School of Business. Williams, a 1968 University graduate with a degree in business, addressed the Class of 2004 at the Comcast Center ceremony.

Williams has been heavily involved in the NABC's Coaches vs. Cancer efforts. The program is a partnership between the National Association of Basketball Coaches and the American Cancer Society. The coaches participating in this program are dedicated to fighting cancer through increased support for research, patient services, and prevention education.

MICHAEL ADAMS

ASSISTANT COACH
BOSTON COLLEGE '85
SECOND SEASON AT MARYLAND

Michael Adams is a familiar face to the Washington, D.C. area, having played for the Washington Bullets in the late 1980s and early 1990s, having served as a television analyst for the Bullets on Home Team Sports in 1996-97 and having spent the 2004 season as the head coach of the WNBA's Washington Mystics.

Now in his second season on staff with the Terrapins, Adams is responsible for player development, advance scouting, game preparation, and recruiting. Adams paid immediate dividends in his first year with the Terps, helping assemble Maryland's freshman class which was rated No. 18 in the nation by Rivals.com.

His addition to head coach Gary Williams' staff in April of 2005 garnered instant national acclaim as CBSSportsline.com tabbed him "...one of the best assistant coach hires of the off-season." His ties to University of Maryland head coach Gary Williams go back to the days when Adams played for Williams at Boston College from 1982-85. Adams brings 14 years of professional basketball experience to the Terrapins, as both a player and coach.

One of the most proficient 3-point shooters in NBA history, Adams spent 11 seasons as a player in the league, which included stints with Sacramento, Washington (1986-87 and 1991-94), Denver and Charlotte. Adams averaged 14.7 points, 6.7 assists and 2.9 rebounds per contest through his 11-year career. He led the NBA in 3-point field goals made during the 1987-88 and 1990-91 seasons, and made at least one 3-point field goal in 79 consecutive games across the 1988 and 1989 seasons, placing him second all-time in the NBA's record books behind (fellow Boston College alum) Dana Barros' 89.

Adams' best season statistically came in 1990-91, when he averaged 26.5 points and 10.5 assists. In 1992, as a member of the Bullets, Adams was selected to the Eastern Conference All-Star team. That year he finished third in the fan voting for the starting spot.

Adams began his coaching career in 1999, serving as assistant coach of the International Basketball League's Richmond Rhythm and helping that team to the 1999 championship game. In 2000, he returned to the NBA as an assistant coach with the Vancouver Grizzlies, moving with the team to Memphis until the end of the 2001-02 season.

As the head coach of the Mystics in 2004, Adams led the WNBA squad to a 17-17 overall record and a berth in the playoffs for the first time in two seasons.

Adams enjoyed a stellar collegiate career during his four years at Boston College, finishing as the school's fifth-leading scorer before being selected in the third round of the 1985 NBA Draft by the Sacramento Kings. Adams earned a bachelor's degree in communications from Boston College, and his jersey was retired there in 1999.

A native of Hartford, Conn., and a standout high school player at Hartford Public High School, Adams has eight siblings. In 2002, he was inducted into the Hartford Public High School Athletic Hall of Fame for basketball. In December 1999, Sports Illustrated named Adams one of the 50 Greatest Connecticut Sports Figures.

Adams now resides in Mitchellville, Md. Off the court, he has been active in many community activities, including coaching his son's youth basketball teams and volunteering for other local organizations. His son, Michael Christian, is another budding point guard and annual attendee of the Gary Williams Basketball Camp.

MARYLAND '85
FIRST SEASON AT MARYLAND

Former Terp shooting guard and Maryland alumnus Chuck Driesell returned to his alma mater in June to become as an assistant coach on head coach Gary Williams' staff. Driesell, who is respected as a recruiter who has gone head-to-head with schools from the ACC, Southeastern Conference and the Big East, brings 16 years of collegiate coaching experience to the Terps' program where his father, the legendary Charles 'Lefty" Driesell, coached from 1969-86.

Driesell joins the Maryland staff after serving as head coach at Bishop Ireton High School the past two seasons. Prior to that, he was an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Georgetown University in 2003-04. Driesell spent six seasons (1997-2003) as head coach at Marymount University (Division III) in Arlington, Va., where he guided the Saints to an 88-72 mark. In 1999-2000, he led Marymount to the Capital Athletic Conference Tournament Championship and its first Division III NCAA Tournament appearance. Driesell also served as assistant athletic director at Marymount from 1999-2003.

Before arriving at Marymount, Driesell spent nine seasons as associate head coach at James Madison under his father, where he helped guide the Dukes to unprecedented success. From 1989-94, JMU either won or tied for five consecutive Colonial Athletic Association regular-season championships (the only team in the country to do so at the time). The Dukes captured the 1994 CAA Tournament title and advanced to the NCAA Tournament, where James Madison lost to eventual national finalist Florida, 64-62. JMU compiled a 159-111 record (85-45 CAA) and made four postseason appearances in nine seasons under the Driesells.

As a four-year letterwinner at Maryland from 1981-85, Driesell was part of four postseason teams under his father's leadership. The Terps won 85 games during his career, while making three NCAA Tournament appearances and capturing the 1984 ACC Championship. The Silver Spring, Md., native was also an ACC Honor Roll selection three of his four years at Maryland and graduated with a B.S. in business marketing in 1985. Following graduation, Driesell began his coaching career at the United States Naval Prep School, where he amassed a 40-29 record from 1985-88.

Driesell has three children: Taylor (14), Brette (11), and Luke (9).

THIRD SEASON AT MARYLAND

In his third season on Gary Williams' coaching staff, former Terrapin All-American and NBA World Champion Keith Booth is back to the place he called home from 1994-97. A powerful and versatile athlete from his playing days in the post, Booth led the Terrapins to four NCAA Tournaments, including a pair of Sweet Sixteen appearances, and in 1994 began Maryland's streak of what is now 11-consecutive NCAA berths.

In a dominant senior season at Maryland, Booth led the Terps in scoring (19.5 ppg), rebounding (7.9 rpg) and steals (2.0 spg) and is still Maryland's all-time leader in free throws made (576). Booth finished his impressive career at Maryland among the Terps' all-time leaders in scoring (8th, 1,776 points), rebounding (6th, 916 points), steals (5th, 193) and is one of 15 players to have his jersey honored above the Terps' home court at Comcast Center.

CHARM CITY CONNECTION

The Baltimore, Md., native's decision to attend the University out of Dunbar High School was considered one of the major recruiting windfalls for Williams and the Terps in the mid-1990s. As a 6-6 guard, Booth was frequently called upon by Williams to guard bigger opponents, and he always rose to occasion.

"Keith Booth was the most important recruit during my years here in terms of getting our basketball program to the national level," said Williams when Booth was introduced as an assistant coach at his alma mater. "Keith always achieved success against larger opponents, and his competitive attitude will carry over to our players."

As a senior at Dunbar, Booth was a Parade and McDonald's All-American selection, he also led his team to the Maryland Class "A" State Championship. Booth was named "Player of the Year" in Baltimore City and the state of Maryland by the Baltimore Sun. A year earlier Booth led his Dunbar squad to a 29-0 record as a junior, helping the team to a No.1 national ranking by USA Today.

It was Booth's decision to attend Maryland that revived the Terps' recruiting pipeline to talent-rich Baltimore. Terrapin star Rodney Elliott followed Booth from the Charm City and enjoyed a successful career as a Terp, and in 1998 another Baltimore native, Juan Dixon, arrived on campus. Dixon, of course, would help continue Maryland's resurgence begun by Booth and teammate Joe Smith, as he eventually became the Terps' all-time scoring leader and keyed Maryland to the 2002 National Championship.

Back at Maryland, Booth assists in all facets of the basketball program. He will work with the athletics department's Academic Support and Career Development to ensure that the team's academic responsibilities are met. He will contribute to the on court coaching, opponent scouting, and recruiting. He will also assume responsibilities as the co-director of the Gary Williams basketball camp, coordinating the management of the coaches, scheduling of the facilities, housing, meals and guest speakers.

PROVEN CHAMPION

After a stellar career at Maryland playing alongside Smith, Elliott Johnny Rhodes and others, Booth was an AP third team All-America selection as a senior in 1997. Booth left Maryland with a host of accolades including All-ACC honors four times over, earning first team honors as a senior, third team as a junior, and honorable mention designation during his freshman and sophomore seasons.

Booth's teams appeared in two NCAA Sweet Sixteens, finishing his sophomore season as ACC Regular Season Co-Champions and ranked No. 10 in the country in the final AP poll. That year (1994-95) the Terps compiled a 26-8 record, including a perfect 16-0 record at Cole Field House. Booth finished his Terrapin career with averages of 14.1 points per game and 7.3 rebounds.

After his playing years at Maryland, Booth was a first round draft pick of the Chicago Bulls in 1997, taken as the #28 selection overall. Booth became the second player in school history to win a NBA Championship when the Michael Jordan-led Bulls won the title in 1998. Booth had his best NBA game on March 30, 1999, as he posted career highs of 18 points, nine rebounds and six assists against the Philadelphia 76ers.

Following a pair of seasons in the NBA, Booth returned to campus and finished his degree in criminology and criminal justice in 2003. Booth worked at an after school program at his former high school Dunbar, and rediscovered his love of coaching while managing a middle school baseball team in Baltimore.

TROY WAINWRIGHT

DIRECTOR OF BASKETBALL OPERATIONS

UMUC '04

11TH YEAR AT MARYLAND

Troy Wainwright, the director of basketball operations, is in his 11th year as a member of Gary Williams' staff. He is an essential part of the success of the team, both on and off the court, and is responsible for the administration of the basketball office.

Wainwright is responsible for all internal operations of the basketball program and serves as a liaison to the athletics department including Deborah Yow, Maryland's director of athletics. He is involved in the day-to-day operations of the team, including budgetary matters, team travel, on-campus housing and dining contracts. In addition, Wainwright is responsible for non-conference scheduling and works with the conference office to coordinate the Terps' ACC schedule.

A native of Berlin, Md., Wainwright has played an integral role in the Terps' success since his arrival. The Terps have appeared in the NCAA Tournament eight times, won the NCAA championship in 2002 and captured the ACC title in 2004. Maryland has averaged over 20 wins during his ten seasons with the team, despite playing the second-toughest schedule in the nation a season ago, the third most difficult in 2002 and the fifth most arduous in 1998. In 2003, 1998 and 1999 the Terps advanced to the Sweet Sixteen of the NCAA Tournament, and in 1999, Maryland won 28 games and was ranked fifth in the nation. In 2001, the Terps advanced to the Final Four and were ranked No. 4 in final rankings by USA Today/ESPN, and of course, in 2002 the Maryland basketball family captured its first-ever national championship and finished with a No. 1 ranking.

Among Wainwright's chief responsibilities is the administration of team travel plans. Wainwright coordinates all transportation (air and ground) as well as hotel accommodations. During his tenure, Wainwright has successfully coordinated travel to eight NCAA Tournaments, eight ACC Tournaments, Hawaii, Puerto Rico and Madison Square Garden, as well as every regular season game. Wainwright successfully directed the Terrapins up and down the East Coast during the 2002 NCAA championship run, to Nashville and San Antonio as part of Maryland's 2003 Sweet Sixteen campaign, and to Denver for a school-record 11th straight NCAA appearance in 2004.

During the summer of 2004, Wainwright played an integral role in coordinating travel for the Terrapins during a 12-day, five-game tour of Italy.

Wainwright serves as the director of the annual Gary Williams golf tournament that raises money to endow scholarships for the basketball program. The tournament has raised more than $300,000 during the nine years since Wainwright's arrival. As tournament director, Wainwright helps solicit sponsorships and participants, and helps with event management on the day of the event. In addition, he coordinates team and individual player awards and a silent auction.

Wainwright also serves as the co-director of the Gary Williams basketball camp each summer. He helps coordinate virtually every aspect of the camp including housing, meals and camp speakers. The 2002-05 Gary Williams camps were the largest in its history, attracting more than 1,200 overnight campers each over a three-week period in each of the last three summers.

A TERP RETURNS

Wainwright was a sociology major at the University of Maryland and went on to work as an account manager with the Washington Bullets from 1992-1994. He then served as an advertising account executive at the Washington Times from 1994-96. He completed a degree at University of Maryland, University College in 2004.

Wainwright served as head manager for the basketball team during Williams' first season at Maryland, 1990, and accompanied the Terps as they advanced to the second round of the National Invitation Tournament. He served as an assistant manager for the three years preceding Williams' arrival in College Park.

ABOUT THE ACC

THE TRADITION

John Swofford,
ACC Commissioner

Consistency. It is the mark of true excellence in any endeavor.

However, in today's intercollegiate athletics, competition has become so balanced and so competitive that it is virtually impossible to maintain a high level of consistency.

Yet the Atlantic Coast Conference has defied the odds. Now in its 53rd year of competition, the ACC has long enjoyed the reputation as one of the strongest and most competitive intercollegiate conferences in the nation. And that is not mere conjecture, the numbers support it.

Since the league's inception in 1953, ACC schools have captured 100 national champion-ships, including 52 in women's competition and and 48 in men's. In addition, NCAA individual titles have gone to ACC student-athletes 130 times in men's competition and 71 in women's action.

If success is best measured in terms of wins and losses, then the ACC is unrivaled in NCAA annals. With North Carolina's victory over Illinois in the 2005 NCAA title game, ACC teams have captured 10 NCAA basketball championships, including six over the last 16 years.

No conference has posted a better NCAA Tournament record than the ACC since the NCAA's inaugural tournament in 1939. With an impressive 58-26 (.690) mark over the past six years, the 12 current conference members have posted an NCAA Tournament-best mark of 357-196 for a sterling .646 winning percentage against the nation's toughest competition.

In the 22 years of the current 64-team field, the ACC has produced 21 Final Four teams, an average of one per year and six more than any other conference.

Since 1985, when the NCAA Tournament was expanded to 64 teams, ACC teams have been even more impressive compiling a 221-105 (.678) NCAA record, including 61 "Sweet 16" appearances and 21 Final Four berths - all NCAA Tournament bests. Since 1985, 61 of the 109 ACC teams receiving NCAA berths have won at least two NCAA Tournament games.

Following their title run in 2005, North Carolina's Tar Heels lead all ACC schools with four NCAA basketball championships to their credit. Duke has claimed three national titles, NC State two and Maryland one. The Tar Heels have captured NCAA titles in 1957, 1982, 1993 and 2005 while the Blue Devils won their third title in 2001, following back-to-back championships in 1991 and 1992. The Wolfpack walked away with the coveted crown in 1974 and 1983 while the Terps claimed the 2002 national title.

The ACC has 10 or more NCAA Tournament wins in four of the last six years and 13 times overall and the league has not posted a losing record in NCAA Tournament play since 1987. The conference's 18-year non-losing streak in NCAA Tournament is tops among all conferences.

In four of the past six years, the ACC has posted a winning record in games versus ranked non-conference foes and since 1990, the ACC - with a 201-195 record - is the only conference with a winning record against ranked non-conference foes.

Since 1981, the ACC has produced 35 consensus All-Americans - 15 more than any other conference. Since 1981, the ACC has accounted for 26 percent of the nation's consensus All-Americans (35-of-135).

The stature of ACC basketball is no where more clearly defined than by its regional and national television exposure as 166 televised games involving ACC teams headlined the league's 2005-06 schedule, including a record-setting 265 appearances. In addition, ACC teams made 147 appearances on national television networks this past season.

An ACC record 10 teams took part in post-season play in 2005-06, including four NCAA Tournament teams. Duke's Blue Devils captured their seventh ACC title in the last eight years, and 16th overall, with a 78-76 victory over Boston College in the finals of the 53rd ACC Tournament. The ACC also set a single-season attendance record drawing 2.1 million fans over 191 home games.

2005-06 IN REVIEW

The 2005-06 academic year concluded with the league pocketing an all-time high six national team titles and 15 individual NCAA crowns. In all, the ACC has won 57 national team titles over the last 16 years. The ACC has won two or more NCAA titles in 24 of the past 26 years.

A HISTORY

The Atlantic Coast Conference was founded on May 8, 1953, at the Sedgefield Inn near Greensboro, N.C., with seven charter members, Clemson, Duke, Maryland, North Carolina, NC State, South Carolina and Wake Forest, drawing up the conference by-laws.

The withdrawal of seven schools from the Southern Conference came early on the morning of May 8, 1953, during the Southern Conference's annual spring meeting. On June 14, 1953, the seven members met in Raleigh, N.C., where a set of bylaws was adopted and the name became officially the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Suggestions from fans for the name of the new conference appeared in the region's newspapers prior to the meeting in Raleigh. Some of the names suggested were: Dixie, Mid South, Mid Atlantic, East Coast, Seaboard, Colonial, Tobacco, Blue-Gray, Piedmont, Southern Seven and the Shoreline.

Duke's Eddie Cameron recommended that the name of the conference be the Atlantic Coast Conference, and the motion was passed unanimously. The meeting concluded with each member institution assessed $200.00 to pay for conference expenses.

On December 4, 1953, conference officials met again at Sedgefield and officially admitted the University of Virginia as the league's eighth member. The first and only, withdrawal of a school from the ACC came on June 30, 1971, when the University of South Carolina tendered its resignation.

The ACC operated with seven members until April 3, 1978, when the Georgia Institute of Technology was admitted. The Atlanta school had withdrawn from the Southeastern Conference in January of 1964.

The ACC expanded to nine members on July 1, 1991, with the addition of Florida State University.

The conference expanded to 11 members on July 1, 2004, with the addition of the University of Miami and Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University. On October 17, 2003, Boston College accepted an invitation to become the league's 12th member on July 1, 2005.

2005-06 REVIEW

2005-06 REVIEW NOTEBOOK

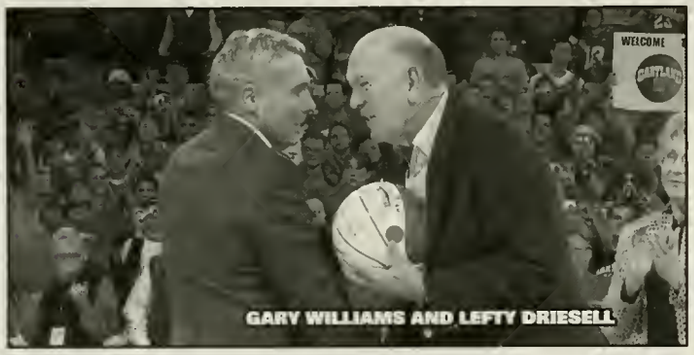
- The Terps made their 13th consecutive postseason appearance by earning the No. 1 seed for the East Region in the National Invitational Tournament. Maryland went 19-13 overall, 8-8 in the ACC marking the 10th straight season with at least 19 victories. The Terps have won 101 ACC games since since 1997, which ranks second among all league schools, and have averaged 22.8 wins per year since the 1994-95 season.
- Maryland once again played one of the toughest schedules in the country. The Terps' schedule ranked as the 17th toughest in the country, third only to Duke and North Carolina in the ACC. Maryland played eight teams ranked in the final Top-25 polls, while seven of the Terps' 13 losses came against top-20 teams. Maryland's win over Boston College in December marked the 10th straight season the Terps have defeated a top-10 team.



- Head coach Gary Williams became the school's all-time winningest coach surpassing Charles "Lefty" Driesell. Williams eclipsed the mark with his 349th win at Maryland when the Terps defeated Virginia, 76-65, on Feb. 7. He finished the season with 353 wins at Maryland and a 560-319 mark overall for his career (10th among active Division I coaches). Williams also moved up to third all-time in ACC career victories with 147, passing the great Frank McGuire.
- Senior forward Nik Caner-Medley finished his Maryland career as one of the top all-around players in school history. Caner-Medley earned Third-Team All-ACC honors for the second straight season in 2005-06, while also earning NABC Second-Team All-District 5 and USBWA All-District 3 honors. He capped his career ranked among the all-time Terps in scoring (13th-1,573 pts), rebounding (18th-659 rebs), steals (11th-146 stls), blocks (13th-86 blks), 3-point field goals (10th-116 FG) and free throws (13th-317 FT). Caner-Medley played in all 127 possible games during his four-year career.
- Senior center Travis Garrison finished his career as one of the school's all-time leading shot blockers. Garrison ranks eighth all-time at Maryland with 136 career blocks, averaging 1.1 blocks per game during his career. He also ranks 23rd all-time with 628 career rebounds and scored 939 career points.
- D.J. Strawberry earned Honorable Mention ACC All-Defensive Team honors after leading the team and ranking sixth in the conference with 1.81 steals per game. He became just the eighth Terp in the last 20 years to lead the team in both assists (4.0 apg) and steals (1.8 spg).
- Maryland was once again one of the top shot-blocking teams in the country. The Terps led the ACC and ranked 13th nationally with 5.97 blocks per game. Maryland recorded at least 10 rejections on three occasions, including a season-high 11 blocks against Duke on Jan. 11. Sophomore forward James Gist finished the season ranked fifth in the ACC with 1.59 blocks per game, while junior forward Ekene Ibekwe ranked seventh in the league with 1.34 rejections per contest.
- Mike Jones knocked down a team-high 61 three-point field goals which is the third-best mark for a junior in school history. Jones attempted 147 three-point field goals, which also ranked third for Terrapin juniors. He is 12th on the school's all-time three pointers list (122) through three years.
- The Terps ranked second in the ACC in attendance averaging 17,174 fans in 17 contests at Comcast Center, while also ranking second in the league with an average of 14,320 fans per game for the entire season. Maryland sold out the regular season at home for the 10th straight year and eclipsed the one-million fan mark in just 61 regular-season games at Comcast Center.

Comcast Center

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - Mike Jones had 22 points off the bench, and Maryland had five other players score in double figures Friday night in a season-opening rout of Fairleigh Dickinson.

Chris McCray and Nik Caner-Medley had 18 points apiece, Ekene Ibekwe scored 16, James Gist 12 and Travis Garrison 11. Jones, a junior guard, went 8-for-11 from the field and sank all three of his foul shots.

Maryland had assists on 25 of its 36 baskets, and reached the 100-point mark in an opener for the first time since 1998.

Gordon Klaiber had 20 points, and John Blackgrove and Cameron Tyler both scored 17 for Fairleigh Dickinson (1-2), the defending Northeast Conference champions.

Maryland opened the second half with a 21-6 run to take a 73-48 lead with 14:57 left. Ibekwe and Caner-Medley had seven points apiece in the surge and McCray added six to help the Terps pull away.

FDU missed seven of eight shots to open the half and had only two baskets over the first six minutes.

McCray had 12 points, Jones added 10 and Maryland outscored FDU 15-5 at the foul line in taking a 52-42 halftime lead.

The Knights kept it close early, overcoming a 16-9 deficit with a 10-2 run that gave them the lead for the third and last time. Maryland moved in front on a dunk by Jones, and Will Bowers added a jumper and a free throw before McCray sank a 3-pointer to make it 26-19. After Klaiber scored from beyond the arc, the Terrapins rattled off seven straight points for an 11-point cushion.

It was 35-26 before Blackgrove scored Fairleigh Dickinson's next 11 points, including a four-point play that made it 43-37, but the Knights would get no closer. Blackgrove's previous career-high was eight points.

#20/23 MARYLAND 75
RV/RV ARKANSAS 62

Nov. 23, 2005 • Lahaina, Hawaii
Lahaina Civic Center • EA Sports Maui Invite

LAHAINA, Hawaii (AP) - Ekene Ibekwe had 16 points and Chris McCray added 15 and Maryland beat Arkansas in the fifth-place game of the Maui Invitational.

The Terrapins (3-1) bounced back from an opening-round loss to No. 8 Gonzaga with wins over Chaminade and Arkansas. Maryland was second in this tournament in 1994 and fourth in 2000.

Ibekwehad six rebounds, four steals and three blocks but like point guard D.J Strawberry he was saddled with foul trouble in the second half. McCray and the rest of Maryland's reserves came up big in the second half, though, scoring the team's final 20 points.

Arkansas (2-2) pulled within 53-50 with 6:39 to play on a rebound basket by Danan Townes. Ibweke hit two free throws 20 seconds later - the last points scored by a Maryland starter - to start a 13-3 run that gave the Terrapins control. McCray had five points in the run and he scored 12 points in the closing 5:08.

Ronnie Brewer had 19 points for the Razorbacks, who lost to No. 3 Connecticut in the opening round and beat Kansas in the consolation semifinals. Townes added 13 points.

Ibekwe was the key inside for Maryland as the Terrapins struggled from the perimeter by going 3-for-12 from 3-point range. The Terrapins finished with a 35-27 rebound advantage and both teams committed 21 turnovers.

The Terrapins had only eight turnovers, three after halftime. McCray sank all three of his 3-point tries in the second half.

Stefan Blaszczynski scored 20 for Nicholls State (1-4) and Ryan Bathie had 12 on 4-for-7 shooting from beyond the arc. The Colonels were playing in their fourth game in seven days, and it showed in the second half.

Maryland outscored the Golden Gophers 47-24 in a second half that featured the ejection of Minnesota coach Dan Monson.

Dan Coleman led the Gophers (2-2) with 16 points, and Adam Boone and J'son Stamper each scored 13. Minnesota was without injured guards Vincent Grier, Ryan Saunders and Kevin Payton. In addition, starting guard Maunce Hargrow left with a leg injury after playing just nine minutes.

Maryland opened the second half with a 15-1 run that made it 51-43. After Strawberry tied it with a layup, the junior guard added a three-point play to give the Terrapins their first lead, 46-43. Strawberry then deflected the inbounds pass to Gamson, who sank a layup.

Minnesota closed to 56-50 before Jones had a dunk and running jumper in an 11-0 spree that gave Maryland a 17-point cushion with 10:45 left.

The Gophers outrebounded Maryland 21-8 and got nine points apiece from Coleman and Spencer Tollackson in taking a 42-36 lead at halftime.

Minnesota went 8-for-13 from the floor in the opening 10 minutes and used a 17-2 run to go up 23-8. Boone capped the run with two straight 3-pointers, including a bank shot from 22 feet as the shot clock expired.

#19/20 GEORGE WASHINGTON 78
#17/21 MARYLAND 70

Dec. 5, 2005 • Washington, D.C.
BB&T Classic • MCI Center

WASHINGTON (AP) - Reserve Maureece Rice scored a career-high 19 points and Mike Hall had 14 points and 12 rebounds, leading No. 19 George Washington past 17th-ranked Maryland in the BB&T Classic.

Danilo Pinnock also scored 19 points for the Colonials (5-0).

Chris McCray scored 21 points and James Gist had 11 for Maryland (5-2), which couldn't overcome a spirited performance by the Colonials in the one-day tournament that featured three games involving Washington-area teams.

It was 51-all before Hall made a putback, Carl Elliott added a tip-in and Pinnock followed with a dunk to give the Colonials the lead for good. The teams then traded baskets before GW forward Pops Mensah-Bonsu fouled out with 6:43 to go.

That left the Colonials without their star big man, and Maryland's Nik Caner-Medley and Ekene Ibekwe immediately followed with a layups to get the Terrapins to 63-62.

But Maryland never could complete the comeback. Pinnock scored on a drive and Omar Williams made two free throws to start an 8-1 run that made it 71-63 with 2:35 remaining.

A driving layup by Rice, a sophomore guard, and two free throws by Pinnock put George Washington up 44-35 with 15:47 left. One minute later, however, Mensah-Bonsu got his fourth foul and went to the bench.

It was 48-42 before McCray hit three 3-pointers over a 44-second span, lifting the Terrapins into a tie at 51.That set the stage for the pivotal 6-0 run that put George Washington in control.

The Colonials shot 29 percent in the first half, but forced 14 turnovers in taking a 34-29 lead. GW outrebounded Maryland 41-40 and forced 25 turnovers.

WESTERN CAROLINA 57
#17/21 MARYLAND 87

Dec. 7, 2005 • College Park, Md.
Comcast Center

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - Travis Gamson had a career-high 23 points and 14 rebounds, and Ekene Ibekwe led a second-half run that carried Maryland past Western Carolina.

Ibekwe scored 12 of his 18 points after halftime, and D.J. Strawberry added 13 points for the Terrapins (6-2), who led by four at the break.

Nik Caner-Medley grabbed 10 rebounds to become the 26th player in Maryland history to reach 1,000 points and 500 rebounds.

Jared Outing led Western Carolina (5-6) with 12 points and Antonio Russell scored 11.

Maryland used a 15-4 run at the outset of the second half to expand a 39-35 lead to 15 points. Ibekwe launched the surge with six straight points and finished it with a dunk.

It was 56-43 before a 3-pointer by Strawberry and a dunk by Ibekwe sparked a 14-2 run that Gamson concluded with seven straight points.

Maryland played without leading scorer Chris McCray, who injured his left ankle during the George Washington game. He was replaced in the starting lineup by Mike Jones, who scored six points.

Gamson, a senior center, had 16 points and 14 rebounds in the first half, and Maryland outrebounded the Catamounts 25-7. But Western Carolina went 6-for-11 from 3-point range to stay within striking distance.

Maryland led 18-13 before Kyle Greathouse connected three times from beyond the arc during an 11-2 run that put the Catamounts up 24-20.

A putback by Gamson - Maryland's first basket in more than 6 minutes - tied it at 24. Minutes later, Caner-Medley scored in the lane and Jones hit a 3-pointer to give the Terrapins a 33-28 lead.

Dec. 11, 2005 • College Park, Md.
Comcast Center

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - Ekene Ibekwe scored 21 points and Chris McCray had 16 as Maryland spoiled the Atlantic Coast Conference debut of 6th-ranked Boston College, 73-71.

Maryland held a 19-5 edge at the free-throw line which aided the Terrapins' effort. The game was physical from the opening tip, which ended up working in Maryland's favor.

Craig Smith had 23 points and 12 rebounds, and Sean Marshall scored 15 points for the Eagles, who lost to a Top 25 team for the second time in six days.

The Eagles trailed 73-68 before Tyrese Rice hit a 3-pointer with 2.2 seconds left. After Maryland threw the inbounds pass away, Boston College did the same thing. As the final buzzer sounded, several hundred fans stormed the court to celebrate.

A 5-0 spurt put Maryland up 65-62 with 3:56 left. After Rice made a layup, Ibekwe missed two free throws with 2:21 to go.

D.J. Strawberry stole the ball on the other end, and McCray made a three-point play for a 68-64 lead. Then, after Smith made one of two foul shots, a Maryland basket was wiped out by an offensive goaltending call.

Smith then fouled out when called for a charge, and a reverse layup by Nik Caner-Medley put Maryland up 70-65 with 43 seconds left.

Maryland led by three points on four occasions during the first 8 minutes of the second half, but the Eagles kept coming back. Then, after BC's Akida McLain missed an easy layup, James Gist made two foul shots to put the Terrapins ahead 49-45 with 11:05 to go.

Marshall followed with a 3-pointer, Smith made a baseline jumper and Marshall sank one of two foul shots to give BC a 51-49 lead.

There were three ties and five lead changes the rest of the way.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - Nik Caner-Medley and Chris McCray each scored 17 points, and No. 16 Maryland held American University to 17 points in the first half of a victory.

Ekene Ibekwe had 13 points and 11 rebounds for the Terrapins (8-2), who showed little signs of rust after a 12-day layoff. Maryland led by 26 points at halftime after shooting 46 percent, outrebounding American 27-14 and forcing 12 turnovers.

Maryland scored 18 points off turnovers and had 27 fast-break points.

The Eagles had more turnovers (12) than baskets (7) and shot 26 percent in falling behind by halftime.

After American's Brayden Billbe made the game's first field goal, successive baskets by Caner-Medley sparked a 12-0 run that included by six straight points by Ibekwe.

It was 17-6 before D.J. Strawberry banked in a jumper and back-up point guard Parrish Brown scored off a steal to begin a 16-2 spurt that put Maryland up by 23.

The Eagles finally scored successive field goals late in the half to make it 33-15, but Caner-Medley answered with a three-point play and McCray added a 3-pointer to start a 10-1 run that ended the half.

DELAWARE STATE 54
#14/16 MARYLAND 68

Dec. 28, 2005 • College Park, Md.
Comcast Center

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - Nik Caner-Medley scored 16 points, and Maryland limited Delaware State to five baskets in the first half of a victory.

Ekene Ibekwe had 12 points and 10 rebounds for the Terrapins (9-2), who forced the Hornets into 5-for-20 shooting while building a 36-13 halftime lead.

It was the 550th career win for Maryland coach Gary Williams, who has guided the Terrapins to 27 consecutive non-conference home victories. Williams (550-308) has 343 wins at Maryland, five short of Lefty Driesell's school record.

Maryland has won four straight and eight of nine. In their last game, the Terrapins yielded only 17 first-half points in an 81-55 rout of American University.

Jahsha Bluntt scored a career-high tying 24 points for Delaware State (2-9), the defending Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference champions. All 11 of the Hornets' games this season have been on the road.

Maryland led 9-6 before Mike Jones hit a 3-pointer to spark a 10-0 run.

After Tracey Worley made a baseline jumper to bring the Hornets to 19-8 with seven minutes left in the first half, the Terrapins went on a 17-2 spree to go up 36-10. Caner-Medley scored eight points in the run.

At halftime, the Hornets had 11 turnovers, were 0-for-5 from 3-point range and 3-for-6 at the free throw line.

Delaware State abandoned its deliberate style in the second half. Bluntt hit a pair of 3-pointers in the opening 90 seconds - the first time in the game that Delaware State made successive baskets.

It was 46-27 before Bluntt scored four points in a 10-1 run that got the Hornets within 10 with 9:19 left.

Caner-Medley then scored on a drive and made two free throws to make it 51-37, and James Gist added two free throws for a 16-point cushion.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - Nik Caner-Medley scored 23 points, Chris McCray added 16, and the Terrapins tuned up for Atlantic Coast Conference play by beating Texas A&M-Corpus Christi.

It was the 29th consecutive non-conference home victory for the Terrapins (11-2), who closed the first half with a 23-5 run to go up 48-30. Maryland upped the margin to 34 points with 12 minutes left and coasted to its sixth straight win.

Fifteen of the Terrapins' next 16 games are against ACC teams, the exception a Jan. 28 matchup against Temple. The run begins Saturday at Miami.

Chris Daniels scored 18 points and Aaron White had 15 for Texas A&M-Corpus Christi (10-5). The Islanders went 10-for-26 from 3-point range and committed 24 turnovers.

It was 25-all before Caner-Medley hit a baseline jumper and McCray scored off a steal, sparking a 9-0 run that Caner-Medley capped with a 3-pointer. After Josh Washington hit a 3 for the Islanders, McCray made a jumper and two free throws to start a run of 11 straight points for a 45-28 lead.

Rashad Mintz then made two free throws for Texas A&M-Corpus Christi before D.J. Strawberry (14 points) hit a 3-pointer for the Terrapins at the first-half buzzer.

The Islanders held a 25-17 rebounding advantage at halftime, but couldn't overcome 10-for-34 shooting or their 14 turnovers. The trend continued in the second half.

CORAL GABLES, Fla. (AP) - The Miami Hurricanes scored the first 13 points, sank a season-high 12 3-pointers and beat Maryland.

Miami's three starting guards totaled 65 points. Anthony Harris scored a season-high 22 in 24 minutes, Robert Hite tied a season high with 22 and Guillermo Diaz had 21.

Miami (9-6, 1-1 ACC) beat a ranked team for the first time in four tries this season. The upset snapped a six-game winning streak for the Terrapins (11-3, 1-1), who lost in overtime at Miami last year.

Nik Caner-Medley scored 19 points for the Terps.

Miami missed only seven of 19 3-point tries and went 7-for-10 in the second half. Harris finished 4-for-4.

Maryland's D.J. Strawberry had 14 points, while Travis Garrison scored 12 points.

Maryland failed to score on its first seven possessions, while Miami sank a trio of 3-pointers en route to a 13-0 lead. Garrison's free throw at 15:49 got the Terrapins on the board, but consecutive 3-pointers by Diaz and Denis Clemente put the Hurricanes ahead 27-15.

The Hurricanes' halftime lead was 37-33, even though Maryland shot 54 percent.

The Terps cut the margin to 44-43 early in the second half but never pulled even. Harris sank consecutive 3-pointers to build Miami's lead back to seven. Hite's drive and dunk made it 57-48, and he sank back-to-back 3-pointers for a 65-62 lead with nine minutes to go.

Another 3-pointer by Hite made it 72-56, and his three-point play gave the Hurricanes their biggest margin at 75-58.

#21/23 MARYLAND 52
#1/1 DUKE 76

Jan. 11, 2006 • Durham, N.C.
Cameron Indoor Stadium

DURHAM, N.C. (AP) - Shelden Williams got his first career triple-double and J.J. Redick scored 27 points, helping the top-ranked Blue Devils snap a three-game losing streak to Maryland.

Maryland swept the series a year ago after beating Duke in the final of the 2004 Atlantic Coast Conference tournament, and Williams and his teammates came out with an inspired first half to make sure it wouldn't happen again.

He had 19 points, 11 rebounds and a career-high 10 blocks for the Blue Devils (15-0, 3-0), who scored the game's first seven points and eventually stretched the lead to 45-22 at halftime. They held the Terrapins (11-4, 1-2) to 29 percent shooting in the opening 20 minutes while forcing 18 of Maryland's season-high 29 turnovers.

Redick, the ACC's leading scorer, finished 9-of-22, including 4-of-13 on 3-pointers.

Williams helped keep all of Maryland's players in single digits in points until Chris McCray made a layup with 3-1/2 minutes to reach 10.

He eventually got to 12 to lead the Terrapins, who lost their second in a row in front of a celebrity-filled crowd that included Magic Johnson, Boston Celtics head of basketball operations Danny Ainge and former Duke players Christian Laettner, Brian Davis and Jay Williams.

Nik Caner-Medley and Ekene Ibekwe led Maryland with nine rebounds apiece, while Travis Garrison finished with four blocked shots.

RV/RV WAKE FOREST 86
#21/23 MARYLAND 90

Jan. 15, 2006 • College Park, Md.
Comcast Center

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - Mike Jones scored 22 points, D.J. Strawberry added 18, and Maryland kept Wake Forest winless in the Atlantic Coast Conference with a 90-86 victory.

Up by 17 points with 9:44 left, Maryland appeared poised to post a comfortable win over Wake Forest.

Justin Gray had other ideas.

Gray scored a career-high 38 points, including a 3-pointer that got the Demon Deacons within two with 2.9 seconds to go. But the Terrapins survived the comeback.

Strawberry hit two clinching free throws after Gray hit his final shot.

Nik Caner-Medley scored 17 points to help the Terrapins (12-4, 2-2) bounce back from losses at Miami and Duke. Maryland placed five players in double figures, led by Jones, whose previous high in an ACC game was 15 points.

Gray went 12-for-20 from the field, including 7-for-11 from 3-point range, but it wasn't enough to bring the Demon Deacons all the way back.

Wake Forest center Eric Williams, who had 22 points and 20 rebounds four days earlier at Clemson, picked up three fouls in the opening 15 minutes and finished with 10 points and eight boards in 28 minutes.

Chris McCray opened the second half with a 3-pointer and a dunk to give Maryland a 46-38 lead. It was 48-42 before James Gist hit a jumper to spark a 6-0 spurt that put the Terrapins up by 12.

Minutes later, McCray turned a turnover into a dunk, then added a 3-pointer to make it 61-46.

It was 65-48 before the Demon Deacons used a 13-2 run to get within six. Sterling Ledbetter then scored for Maryland, and after Wake Forest missed twice on the other end, Jones made two free throws for a 10-point cushion with 4:47 remaining.

Gray scored 21 in the first half, but the Terrapins got 16 from Jones in taking a 41-38 lead.

VIRGINIA TECH 72
#22/22 MARYLAND 81

Jan. 21, 2006 • College Park, Md.
Comcast Center

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - Nik Caner-Medley scored 23 points, Chris McCray had 21, and the 22nd-ranked Maryland Terrapins handed the Hokies an 81-72 defeat.

Maryland, which remained unbeaten at home this season, led 45-44 early in the second half when Caner-Medley hit a tough inside jumper and James Gist added a follow dunk to spark an 8-2 spurt that gave the Terrapins a seven-point lead with 14:44 left.

After Zabian Dowdell hit a 3-pointer for Virginia Tech, Caner-Medley made a layup and a jumper from the corner to give Maryland an eight-point cushion. Minutes later, a three-point play by Caner-Medley made it 64-51, and the Terrapins coasted to the finish.

Gist (11 points) and Ekene Ibekwe (10) also reached double figures for the Terrapins (13-4, 3-2), who have won 14 straight at home - including 11 this season.

Dowdell scored 21 - becoming the 35th player in Virginia Tech history to top the 1,000-point mark for his career - and Coleman Collins added 18. But it wasn't enough to prevent the Hokies from losing for the eighth time in nine games in the lopsided series that stands 25-5 in favor of the Terrapins.

The Hokies (10-8, 0-5) dropped their first four conference games by a total of 16 points.

In this one, they managed to get to 70-64, but two free throws by Caner-Medley with 1:18 left silenced the comeback.

It was the 142nd ACC victory for Maryland coach Gary Williams, tying him with Frank McGuire for third place on the career list. North Carolina's Dean Smith had 364 and Duke coach Mike Krzyzewski is at 255.

Williams also earned his 347th win at Maryland, one short of the school record held by Lefty Driesell.

Virginia Tech led 38-37 after a first half that featured 11 lead changes and five ties.

GEORGIA TECH 74

Jan. 25, 2006 • Atlanta, Ga.
Alexander Memorial Coliseum

ATLANTA (AP) - Nik Caner-Medley scored a season-high 33 points and Maryland earned an 86-74 victory over Georgia Tech for its first road victory in the ACC this season.

Caner-Medley was 8-of-12 from the field, which included making both 3-point attempts, along with continually getting to the foul line with his strong play inside. He hit 15 of 16 free throws.

The Terrapins (14-4, 4-2 ACC) manhandled the Yellow Jackets, who have their first four-game losing streak since a five-game skid in 2002-03.

Maryland tied a school record by making 41 free throws, missing only four attempts. The Terrapins equaled the mark set in a 1994 victory over Morgan State, when they went 41-of-67.

Also, it was the most free throws made by a Georgia Tech (9-8, 2-4) opponent, easily breaking the previous record of 37 by Yale in 1973.

Caner-Medley, who was averaging 13.8 points, knew he had to take on more of a scoring role. Nine of the senior's points came during a 13-1 spurt that helped the Terrapins pull away before the midway point of the second half.

In fact, Caner-Medley scored the last seven points in the run - hitting a jumper, then a 3-pointer and finally splitting the defense for a lay-in that put Maryland up 63-45 with 11:08 remaining.

Head Coach Gary Williams has 348 wins in 17 seasons with the Terrapins. That ties him with the Charles "Lefty" Driesell for the most in school history.

"Lefty came in and got that place rolling," said Williams, whose overall record improved to 555-310. "I learned a lot from Lefty Driesell. He's a big part of Maryland history. It's a compliment for me to be tied with Lefty, that's for sure."

TEMPLE 91

Jan. 28, 2006 • Philadelphia, Pa.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) - Mardy Collins scored 25 points, Dustin Salisbery had 23 and Temple used a 17-2 run late in the game to beat No. 18 Maryland.

Nik Caner-Medley led Maryland (14-5) with 30 points and 10 rebounds, and Mike Jones had 23 points ,including a school-record tying seven three-pointers. Coach Gary Williams remained tied with Lefty Driesell on the team's career win list with 348.

Jones and Caner-Medley hit consecutive 3-pointers for a 63-61 lead.

Travis Gamson's three and a driving layup by Caner-Medley made it 67-64 with 6:22 remaining and that was the last basket the Terps would score until James made a 3 with 1:18 left in the game.

The Owls' offense started clicking late. Marshall, the 6-foot-11, 285-pound center who missed the first eight games because of dizzy spells, was left open on the block and scored two straight baskets for a 68-67 lead.

Salisbery then hit a three - one of 12 for the Owls. Robinson added a 3 and Collins stopped on a drive and hit a little bank shot to give the Owls a 78-67 lead. When Mark Tyndale made one of two free throws, the Owls capped their run and went up 81-69. Tyndale had 14 points and 10 rebounds.

Caner-Medley temporarily hushed the crowd when he made two straight 3-pointers that made it 90-83 with just under 10 seconds left. Still, the Owls hung and beat their second ranked team of the season.

RV/RV NORTH CAROLINA 77
#23/RV MARYLAND 62

Feb. 2, 2006 • College Park, Md.
Comcast Center

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - Reyshawn Terry scored 20 points, David Noel had 19 points and 12 rebounds, and North Carolina used a relentless defense to shut down Maryland.

Tyler Hansbrough had 15 points and eight rebounds for the Tar Heels (13-5, 4-3 ACC), who limited Maryland to 22 points in the second half.

Terry scored seven points during an 11-2 run that gave the defending national champions a 57-48 lead with 8:18 remaining. After Maryland closed to 57-54, a dunk by Terry, a 3-pointer by Danny Green and a basket by Hansbrough pushed the margin to 10.

Nik Caner-Medley scored 15 points for the Terrapins (14-6, 4-3), who came in averaging an ACC-best 82.7 points per game. Maryland shot only 35 percent from the floor and went 3-for-16 from 3-point range.

D.J. Strawberry rebounded with 14 points against the Tar Heels.

North Carolina started the second half with an 8-2 run to take a 46-42, but two straight baskets by Caner-Medley tied it with 15:20 to go. Neither team scored again until Terry hit a 3-pointer with 13 minutes left, and the junior forward added a follow-shot to give the Tar Heels a five-point lead.

After Will Bowers scored for Maryland, Hansbrough made a tough layup in traffic, Terry hit a baseline jumper and Noel soared in for a dunk that made it 57-48.

Noel scored 15 points, Strawberry had 14, and a first half that featured nine lead-changes and four ties ended with the Terrapins up 40-38.

#23/RV MARYLAND 58
#17/18 NC STATE 62

Feb. 5, 2006 • Raleigh, N.C.
RBC Center

RALEIGH, N.C. (AP) - Tony Bethel made two 3-pointers and two free throws down the stretch, helping North Carolina State hold off Maryland despite the Wolfpack making only five field goals inside the arc.

Bethel finished with five 3s and 17 points, and Cameron Bennerman added 11 points for the Wolfpack (18-4, 7-2 ACC).

Andrew Brackman made a layup with 13:21 remaining for NC State, and what turned out to be his team's lone two-point field goal of the second half increased its lead to 42-34.

The Terrapins (14-7, 4-4) rallied to get within three on Nik Caner-Medley's late 3-pointer, but Bethel converted two free throws and Bennerman added another to offset a tip-in by Ekene Ibekwe. Maryland missed three attempts in the final seconds, then a final one when Mike Jones was short on an off-balanced jumper right before the final buzzer.

Caner-Medley picked up the pace with 10 points in second half, including five in a 35-second span, to bring the Terrapins within 56-53.

Bethel answered on the other end with a 3 before Caner-Medley made another, setting up the finish.

D.J. Strawberry had 14 points for Maryland, and Jones and James Gist each scored 13. Caner-Medley added 10 rebounds.

Yet with Bethel and company making jumpers from all over the court, none of that was enough. Six players had 3s for the Wolfpack, with Ilian Evtimov and Bennerman each making two, and they finished 12-for-28 from beyond the arc for the game.

Bethel's total tied a career high and gave him at least three in five straight games. NC State managed to win despite shooting a season-low 30.9 percent.

VIRGINIA 65
RV/RV MARYLAND 76

Feb. 7, 2006 • College Park, Md.
Comcast Center

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - Gary Williams became the winningest men's basketball coach in University of Maryland history, earning win No. 349 by guiding the Terrapins to a comeback victory over Virginia.

Maryland (15-7, 5-4) yielded the first 13 points of the game and trailed 51-42 with just over 10 minutes left before rallying to give Williams his milestone victory.

Williams is 349-185 since taking over the program at his alma mater in 1989. With 43 seconds left, the sellout crowd of 17,950 began to shout "Gary! Gary!" in unison. He broke the mark of 348 set by Charles "Lefty" Driesell.

Soon after, when he was presented the game ball by team captain Nik Caner-Medley, Williams was nearly overcome by emotion as he conducted his postgame radio interview.

D.J. Strawberry had a career-high 19 points and Ekene Ibekwe had 14 points and a career-high 15 rebounds for the Terrapins, who yielded only two baskets in the final five minutes.

J.R. Reynolds and Sean Singletary each scored 18 points, and Jason Cain had 11 points and 13 rebounds for Virginia (11-9, 5-5).

It was 60-all before Ibekwe made a layup and Mike Jones hit a 3-pointer to spark a 9-0 run that enabled the Terrapins to pull away. Maryland has won five straight over Virginia and 12 of 13 at home.

The Cavaliers led 51-42 before successive baskets by Travis Garnson, James Gist and Ibekwe preceded a 3-pointer by Strawberry that brought the Terrapins even with 8 minutes left, the first tie since the opening tip.

After a Virginia misfire, Ibekwe got the rebound and was fouled. He sank both free throws to give the Terrapins their first lead, 53-51.

The Cavaliers went back on top before Strawberry hit a 3-pointer for a 56-55 lead. Jones then missed a breakaway reverse dunk, and Singletary nailed a 3-pointer for Virginia before Strawberry scored to tie it at 58.

Minutes later, the Terrapins pulled away.

Virginia held a 26-14 rebounding advantage at halftime, grabbing 10 on the offensive end, and limited Maryland to 31 percent shooting in taking a 38-30 lead at the break.

#2/2 DUKE 96
RV/RV MARYLAND 88

Feb. 11, 2006 • College Park, Md.
Comcast Center

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - Shelden Williams had 26 points and 13 rebounds, and J.J. Redick scored 35 points for the second straight game, and No. 2 Duke never trailed in a 96-88 victory.

The Blue Devils (23-1, 11-0 ACC) were swept by the Terrapins last season and had lost three of their last four at Maryland.

Williams went 10-for-15 from the field, and Redick made four 3-pointers and was 13-for-14 at the free throw line. Duke connected 11 times from beyond the arc. Maryland made only four.

Nik Caner-Medley scored 22 points and James Gist had 13 points and 10 rebounds for the Terrapins (15-8, 5-5).

Duke opened both halves with 11-4 runs. The first one enabled the Blue Devils to take control early, and the latter provided Duke with an 11-point lead after Maryland closed to 42-38 at halftime.

Redick, who had 35 points in the win at North Carolina on Tuesday, began the second half with a 3-pointer and Williams added a layup. It was 49-42 before a jumper by Redick and a dunk by Williams put the Blue Devils up by 11.

Maryland spent the rest of the game trying to close the gap. But every time the Terrapins made progress - raising the noise level of the sellout crowd - Duke had an answer.

It was 64-54 before Williams made a layup and Redick sank a 3 for a 15-point lead. Then, after the Terrapins closed to 83-75, Sean Dockery hit a 3-pointer for the Blue Devils.

Maryland never cut the gap below seven points after that.

Before the game, Gary Williams was recognized as the winningest men's basketball coach in Maryland history during a ceremony that included the man whose record he broke, Lefty Driesell.

Williams then set out to earn his 350th win with his alma mater.

MARYLAND 77
CLEMSON 89

Feb. 14, 2006 • Clemson, S.C.
Littlejohn Coliseum

CLEMSON, S.C. (AP) - Shawan Robinson, starting in place of injured point guard Vernon Hamilton, had a season-high 24 points as Clemson earned a 89-77 victory over Maryland.

Robinson had five 3-pointers, including one during a 22-3 second-half run as the Tigers (15-10, 4-8 ACC) took control.

The chances of the Tigers continuing their winning ways against the Terps (15-9, 5-6) took a hit before the game began.

But Robinson showed he was up to the challenge. His four 3-pointers in the first half help Clemson survive Maryland's 58 percent shooting performance the first 20 minutes.

Then Robinson continued Clemson's game-changing run with his outside shooting.

D.J. Strawberry's bucket with 17:24 gave Maryland its last lead 50-49.

K.C. Rivers started the Tigers run, then Robinson followed with his long-range shot.

Cliff Hammonds and Akin Akingbala added four points each and Rivers made another 3. When Troy Mathis drilled an open shot from behind the arc, Clemson was up 71-53 with 10:06 to go.

The Terps weren't through. After going nearly seven minutes without a basket, Maryland used an 13-2 run to cut Clemson's lead to 73-66.

That was as close as the Terps could get. Sam Perry had a jam and Rivers a driving shot to put the Tigers back up by double digits.

Hammonds had 17 points and Akingbala had 14 points and 13 rebounds for the Tigers.

Nik Caner-Medley led Maryland with 21 points, eight of those came in the second half. He also had 12 rebounds.

Mike Jones had 19 points, including four of the Terps' six threes.

GEORGIA TECH 84
MARYLAND 87

Feb. 18, 2006 • College Park, Md.
Comcast Center

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - Ekene Ibekwe scored five of his 14 points in overtime, converting a key three-point play during a decisive 8-0 run in Maryland's 87-84 victory over Georgia Tech.

Mike Jones scored 21 points, James Gist added 12 points and a career-high 12 rebounds and D.J. Strawberry had 12 points for Maryland (16-9, 6-6 ACC), which had lost two straight and five of six.

Ra'Sean Dickey led Georgia Tech (10-14, 3-10) with 23 points, and Zam Fredrick added 17.

Gary Williams won his 350th game as the Terrapins' coach.

Dickey's baseline jumper at the start of overtime put Tech up 80-78, but Maryland reeled off the next eight points.

After Ibekwe hit a foul shot for an 81-80 lead with 3.16 remaining in overtime, he drew a charge from the Yellow Jackets' Jeremis Smith on the inbound play.

On the ensuing possession, Ibekwe loped through the lane for a driving dunk, sinking a free throw for a three-point play after being fouled.

The Terrapins held a 50-41 second-half lead, rallied to take a 73-69 advantage on Jones' 3-pointer from the left corner with 5:15 left, then let Georgia Tech tie the game five times during the remainder of regulation, the last on Smith's free throw with 39.2 seconds left.

Nik Caner-Medley's drive with 4 seconds left was blocked by Dickey, but Jones returned the favor at the other end of the court, swatting away Fredrick's right-side jumper at the buzzer to force overtime.

Maryland shot 58 percent from the field in the first half and closed the half on an 8-2 run for a 38-35 lead. Gist started the burst, converting a Pamsh Brown pass for a two-handed slam, and Caner-Medley finished it with two free throws.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) - Al Thornton scored 27 points and grabbed 12 rebounds as Florida State defeated Maryland to keep its NCAA postseason hopes alive.

Florida State (17-7, 7-6 ACC) jumped to an 11-4 lead and stayed in control throughout.

Thornton's 10 points and eight rebounds led Florida State to a 37-27 halftime lead, although the Seminoles were up by as many as 14.

Maryland (16-10, 6-7) pulled within six at 37-31 early in the second half, but Thornton keyed 21-7 Florida State run that put the Seminoles into a 58-38 lead midway through the final half.

The 6-foot-7 Thornton hit 10 of 15 shots from the field and made both of his 3-point tries. Isaiah Swann joined Thornton in double figures with 12 points.

Florida State's win was its seventh in league play this season, its most conference victories in 13 seasons.

Nik Caner-Medley led Maryland with 19 points and Ekene Ibekwe added 15.

Florida State's Alexander Johnson, who had had five double-doubles in his last seven games, played just two minutes in the first half because of foul trouble but finished with nine points and seven rebounds.

#21/21 NORTH CAROLINA 81

Feb. 26, 2006 • Chapel Hill, N.C.
Dean E. Smith Center

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) - Tyler Hansbrough scored 21 points to help No. 21 North Carolina continue its climb in the Atlantic Coast Conference with a victory over Maryland.

The Tar Heels (19-6, 10-4 ACC) helped solidify their hold on second place in the conference behind No. 1 Duke and clinch a first-round bye in the conference tournament.

North Carolina shot 41 percent from the field - the first time in five games it failed to make at least 50 percent.

David Noel and Marcus Ginyard added 12 each for the Tar Heels.

For the Terrapins (16-11, 6-8), Ekene Ibekwe had 12 points and Mike Jones added 11.

Ginyard's 3-pointer midway through the first half gave North Carolina a 10-point lead for the first time, and the margin grew. It was 46-28 soon after halftime before Maryland found some offense, as Jones swished a 3, Travis Garrison turned a turnover into a layup and James Gist made a jumper.

The margin still was 11 following a dunk by Nik Caner-Medley, and that's when the Tar Heels began pulling away.

Noel scored on consecutive possessions and reserve Byron Sanders tipped in a miss by Danny Green to make it 54-39. A fast-break jumper by Quentin Thomas continued what eventually became a 15-6 run, finished off when Ginyard put back a miss by Noel.

Hansbrough continued his efforts to become the first freshman in school history to lead the team in scoring and rebounding. He scored at least 20 points for the 11th time this season.

MIAMI 61
MARYLAND 65

March 1, 2006 • College Park, Md.
Comcast Center

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - Nik Caner-Medley scored 18 points, and Maryland used a solid performance at the foul line to rally past Miami.

The Terrapins made only nine baskets in the second half but went 16-for-20 at the foul line and finished 23-for-28. Miami, in contrast, made only eight free throws in 13 attempts.

Mike Jones made all six of his foul shots and scored 15 points, and Ekene Ibekwe had nine points and 11 rebounds for Maryland (17-11, 7-8 ACC). The Terrapins trailed by seven late in the second half before storming back.

Robert Hite scored 18 points and Guillermo Diaz had 17 for the Hurricanes (15-13, 7-8).

After Caner-Medley made two free throws to tie it at 57 with 3:09 left, neither team scored again until Maryland's James Gist hit a fadeaway jumper in the lane with 50 seconds remaining. Anthony Harris then made one of two free throws for Miami, and the Hurricanes sent Sterling Ledbetter to the line with 28 seconds to go.

Ledbetter made the first and missed the second, but Miami couldn't control the rebound. D.J. Strawberry sank a free throw to put Maryland up by three, and Diaz had a 3-point try deflected before Ibekwe made the second of two free throws for a 62-58 lead with 13.9 seconds left.

Hite followed with a 3-pointer, and after Ledbetter made two foul shots with 5.9 seconds left, Diaz was fouled before he had a chance to tie it. He missed both free throws, the second intentionally, but the Hurricanes couldn't get the rebound.

The Terrapins never trailed in the first half and reached the break with a 30-29 lead.

Maryland coach Gary Williams started the squad's three seniors in their final regular season home game, and each contributed in the opening eight minutes. Caner-Medley scored 11 points on 4-for-4 shooting, and Travis Garrison and Ledbetter both had baskets to stake Maryland to a 21-13 lead.

MARYLAND 71
VIRGINIA 70

March 5, 2006 • Charlottesville, Va.
University Hall

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. (AP) - Maryland's Mike Jones made a 3-pointer with 1:11 remaining and J.R. Reynolds missed a 3-pointer that would have won it for Virginia at the buzzer as the Terrapins won the final game at University Hall.

Maryland (18-11, 8-8 ACC) got a needed victory and earned the No. 6 seed in the ACC Tourney.

The Cavaliers (14-13, 7-9), coming off consecutive blowout road losses, made a huge rally, but failed to win in the final game in 41 seasons at University Hall.

Nik Caner-Medley led Maryland with 16 points and, more importantly, made all 12 of his free throws on a day.

Caner-Medley made four of them in the final 3:11, each time allowing the Terps to pull back to even moments after Virginia had taken its first lead of the half.

Then Jones calmly pulled up to the left of the key, let fly with the go-ahead shot and the Cavaliers were unable to find one more comeback. Sean Singletary had a shot blocked by James Gist, then failed to inbound the ball, drawing a 5-second violation.

After Maryland's D.J. Strawberry was called for a charge at the other end, the Cavaliers inbounded the ball with 22 seconds to play, worked the ball to Reynolds and he took a contested 3-point from right of the key, but the ball missed badly.

Reynolds led Virginia with 30 points. Ekene Ebekwe and Jones each added 13 for the Terrapins.

The Cavaliers trailed most of the way, but took their first lead of the second half at 66-64 on Singletary's fallaway 15-footer with 3:53 to play. Caner-Medley made a pair of free throws before Reynolds scored on a drive, and Caner-Medley made two again.

Reynolds took control with Singletary on the bench with four fouls in the second half. He scored 12 points during a 30-12 run that lasted more than nine minutes, turning a 50-32 runaway for Maryland into a 62-all deadlock with six minutes to play.

Maryland led 36-27 at halftime and opened the second half with a 14-5 run.

GEORGIA TECH 64
MARYLAND 82

March 9, 2006 • Greensboro, N.C.
Greensboro Coliseum • ACC-1st Round

GREENSBORO, N.C. (AP) - Nik Caner-Medley had 20 points and Mike Jones added 19 to help Maryland improve its postseason chances with an easy 82-64 victory over Georgia Tech in the opening round of the Atlantic Coast Conference tournament.

D.J. Strawberry finished with 15 points and seven assists for the sixth-seeded Terrapins (19-11).

Ra'Sean Dickey had 17 points and 12 rebounds for the 11th-seeded Yellow Jackets (11-17), and teammate Anthony Morrow also scored 17 points.

Maryland dominated from the start in large part to its stingy defense. The Yellow Jackets missed 14 of their first 18 shots and 16 of their first 26 to fall behind by double figures early, and the numbers included four air balls.

After Zam Frederick's jumper tied it at 7, the Terrapins took off on a 16-2 run, highlighted by seven consecutive points from Caner-Medley. He swished a 3-pointer, got in the lane for another basket and curled around a screen to score again to make it 14-9.

It quickly got worse for Georgia Tech. D.J. Strawberry converted a three-point play, Ekene Ibekwe made a shot from right outside the lane and Jones dunked off an assist from Strawberry for a 12-point lead. Ibekwe posted up to complete the dominating spurt, and the Yellow Jackets never fully recovered.

Ibekwe got the second half started with a dunk off a nifty lob pass from Strawberry, and before long, the Terrapins had 10 unanswered points. It was 52-27 at that point.

#11/11 BOSTON COLLEGE 80

March 10, 2006 • Greensboro, N.C.
Greensboro Coliseum • ACC Quarterfinals

GREENSBORO, N.C. (AP) - Craig Smith had 21 points, 15 rebounds and seven assists to lead No. 11 Boston College past Maryland in the quarterfinals of the Atlantic Coast Conference tournament.

Tyrese Rice added 19 points and Jared Dudley had 18 for the third-seeded Eagles (25-6). James Gist scored 14 points for the sixth-seeded Terrapins (19-12).

The win allowed Boston College to avenge a 73-71 loss at Maryland in its league debut, which was part of an 0-3 start in its new conference. The Eagles led throughout this time, scoring 19 of the game's first 21 points and taking a 21-point lead midway through the first half.

Boston College roared to leads of 19-2 and 22-4 before going ahead 27-6 on a jumper from Akida McLain off a feed from Smith with about 9 minutes left in the half.

Maryland shot just 7-for-29 (24 percent) in the opening half, while Boston College shot 50 percent and had 12 assists on 14 baskets. The Eagles also went 5-for-8 from 3-point range in the half.

The lead grew to 59-35 on a runner by Rice with 12 1/2 minutes left before the Terrapins closed the margin to 14 points three times in the final minutes. Maryland made its best push with a 10-0 run to close to 61-47 on free throws by Gist with 7:31 left, but Boston College answered with two free throws from Rice and a tip-in by Dudley to push it back to 18.

MANHATTAN 87
MARYLAND 84

March 18, 2006 • College Park, Md.
Comcast Center • Postseason NIT 1st Round

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - Jeff Xavier scored a career-high 31 points, Jason Wingate added 21, and Manhattan eliminated Maryland from the NIT.

The Jaspers (20-10) led by 14 with 13 minutes left, then had four players foul out. But Manhattan overcame that to end Maryland's 29-game non-conference home winning streak.

Wingate missed the front end of three straight one-and-one opportunities down the stretch before seldom-used sophomore Franck Traore sank two free throws with 32 seconds left to make it 84-79.

Manhattan, the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference regular-season champion, opened the NIT with an 80-77 win over Fairleigh Dickinson.

Xavier scored 18 first-half points to give the Jaspers a 47-37 lead.

Travis Garrison scored 21 points in his final game with Maryland and senior Nik Caner-Medley added 16 on 6-for-16 shooting.

Xavier went 12-for-24 from the field, made four 3-pointers and sank all three of his foul shots in topping his previous career high of 25 points.

The Terps opened the second half with a 6-0 run to close to 47-43 before Xavier scored eight points in a 14-4 surge that made it 61-47.

It was 75-65 before a 3-pointer by Mike Jones and a layup by Caner-Medley got the Terrapins within five points with 5:42 to go. Xavier followed with a three-point play to ignite a 7-0 run that gave the Jaspers enough breathing room to weather Maryland's comeback bid

The Terrapins missed their first four shots, then built a 12-8 lead before Wingate scored seven points in a 17-3 spurt that put Manhattan up by 10.

Manhattan led 32-30 before Caner-Medley received a foul and a technical foul - his third personal. Wingate made the two technical free throws, and Xavier added two foul shots to end a 9-0 run.

NO. 1 TERPS!

Maryland has been ranked No. 2 a total of 37 times between the AP and Coaches Polls, but achieved its first and only No. 1 ranking in history on April 2, 2002 – one day after defeating Indiana for the 2002 NCAA Championship. The final AP poll was released prior to the NCAA Tournament, thus the No. 1 ranking by USA Today/ESPN remains the only poll in which Maryland has ever been ranked No. 1. The Terrapins' four losses in 2002 (Oklahoma, Duke, Arizona, NC State) were all on the road to teams ranked in the USA Today/ESPN final Top 25.

ALL-TIME RESULTS

Game-by-game results for every Maryland basketball season since 1910-11. Maryland was known as Maryland Agricultural College until 1915, and as Maryland State College from 1916-1919. Maryland's conference affiliations: Atlantic Coast Conference since 1953-54, and the Southern Conference from 1923-24 to 1952-53.

An all-college basketball team was formed in 1904-05, and played just two games. Due to a fire in 1912 which burnt the armory and college gymnasium, the team that was fielded in 1913-14 did not have a regular home, practiced only three times all season and lost 16 games. Another team was not fielded until 1918-19.

In 1918-19, Maryland State participated in the District Intercollegiate Basketball League, in which all games were played at the Washington YMCA. Another season would not be conducted until Maryland opened its new facility at The Gymnasium, inside Annapolis Hall, in 1923-24. It is considered to be the school's first "varsity" team.

Home games were played at The Gymnasium from 1923-24 to 1930-31. Home games were played at Ritchie Coliseum from 1931-32 to 1954-55. Home games from 1955-56 through 2001-02 were played at Cole Field House. Beginning in 2002-03, Maryland moved to Comcast Center.

Maryland and opponent Associated Press rankings are in brackets – AP polls began in 1948-49. From 1960-61 to 1967-68, the Associated Press ranked only the nation's top 10 teams.

COLE FIELD HOUSE

Its official name is the "William P. Cole Jr. Student Activities Building."

That is the name that can be read on the structure that still sits between the tennis courts and the university's student union, on the main thoroughfare of the campus of the University of Maryland, College Park. It is no longer, however, the home of Maryland basketball, as it was for 47 years since December of 1955.

Everyone just called it "Cole." Like Kentucky, where the Wildcats play at "Rupp." Or in Westwood, where UCLA plays at "Pauley."

The building is Cole Field House, even though that description appears nowhere officially. The nation's only on-campus arena to play host to multiple Final Fours, it has hosted numerous NCAA tournaments for basketball, volleyball and wrestling. It also hosted a U.S. vs. China ping-pong match in 1972 before a capacity crowd in what was the first sporting event held between the two nations; it hosted U.S. Presidents and, in September 1974, it even hosted Elvis.

Besides the all-black starting five of Texas Western taking the floor against Kentucky in the national championship game of 1966, Cole Field House was also home to the first black basketball players in the ACC — Maryland's Billy Jones (1966-68) and Pete Johnson (1967-69).

In 47 seasons, Terrapin teams were 486-151 at Cole Field House. A few of Cole's most memorable basketball moments:

COLE WAS A HOUSE OF HORRORS FOR NO. 1 TEAMS

Cole Field House bears distinction as having hosted more upsets of No. 1-ranked teams than any building in the country.

When the No. 3-ranked Terrapins dispatched top-rated Duke on Feb. 27, 2002, it was Cole Field House's seventh game in which a No. 1 ranked team has fallen.

Including NCAA Tournament games, Notre Dame's Joyce Athletics & Convocation Center has hosted six No. 1 upsets and Oklahoma's Lloyd Noble Center has been the site of five.

At Cole, Maryland has beaten the nation's top team in six of those seven games. Also at Cole, No. 3-ranked Texas Western topped No. 1 Kentucky during the 1966 Final Four.

1955

Cole Field House dedicated at a cost of $3.3 million. Maryland defeats Virginia, 67-55, on Dec. 2 in the first game in the new facility.

1958

Cole is home to the Atlantic Coast Conference champions and Maryland's first NCAA Tournament team.

1965

Bill Bradley scored 41 points in the NCAA East Region championship game as Princeton topped Providence, 109-69.

1966

Cole plays host to the NCAA Final Four. In the semifinals, Kentucky defeats Duke and Texas Western (now Texas-El Paso) defeats Utah. Texas Western then defeats Kentucky in one of the most historic championship games in history.

1970

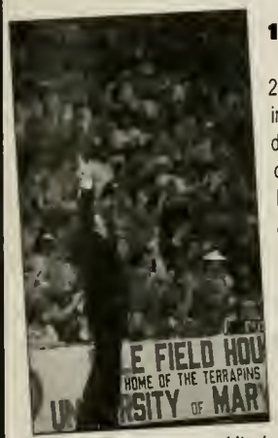
Cole plays host to the NCAA Final Four for the second time. UCLA defeats Jacksonville for the title as Sidney Wicks outduals Artis Gilmore. It was the fourth of UCLA's seven consecutive NCAA championships.



Lefty Driesell was the architect of Maryland's great teams of the '70s and '80s.

1971

Maryland defeats No. 2 South Carolina, 31-30, in one of the great "slow-down" games in the history of Cole. Leading only 4-3 at halftime, Maryland needed a lay-up from Jim O'Brien to tie the game with five seconds to go in regulation and an 11-foot jumper from O'Brien to win the game with four seconds remaining in OT.

1972

Cole is home to the National Invitation Tournament champions – the Maryland Terrapins.

The Cole Field House single-game attendance record of 15,287 was set as Maryland played host to North Carolina on Feb. 16. Maryland won 79-77 in an overtime thriller.

1975

Cole was the site of the first women's basketball game ever to be televised.

1979

On Super Bowl Sunday, Larry Gibson sank a free throw with one second on the clock to boost the Terps past top-ranked Notre Dame, 67-66, on Jan. 27, 1979. Gibson scored 11 points that day while Ernest Graham scored 28 and Buck Williams grabbed 15 rebounds.

1984

Cole is home to the ACC champion Terrapins.

1991

In the NCAA Eastern Regional first round, 15th-seeded Richmond defeats No. 2 seed Syracuse, 73-69, in one of the great upsets in NCAA Tournament history. It was only the second time in the history of the tournament that a No. 15 seed had defeated a No. 2 seed.

1992

On Jan. 15, 1992, No. 3 Maryland hosted No. 2 Virginia in a women's basketball shootout before a sellout crowd of 14,500. The game still stands as the ACC attendance mark for a women's game.

Maryland defeats No. 10 North Carolina, 82-80, on a last-second tip-in by All-American Walt Williams. Williams put the Terps up 81-80 with 1.3 seconds remaining to lead the Terps past the Tar Heels in Cole for only the second time since the 1982-83 season.

1994

Before a sellout crowd on March 5, Maryland defeats Virginia, 70-68, to clinch a fourth-place tie in the ACC standings and virtually assure its first NCAA Tournament bid under Gary Williams.

1995

Maryland defeats No. 1 North Carolina, 86-73, in front of a sellout crowd and a national television audience.

1998

Maryland defeats No. 1 North Carolina, 89-83 in overtime, as Laron Profit scores 19 points overall and six during an overtime period. It marks the second time in three years that the Terps beat No. 1 North Carolina in Cole.

1999

Maryland sets a school record with 28 wins on the season, and the Terps host a record 14,455 fans per game at Cole. Junior sensation Steve Francis is named an All-American and later chosen as the second pick in the NBA draft.

2001

Maryland defeats Virginia 102-67 in the final game of the regular season to mark the most lopsided win ever, in the longtime series against its ACC rival. One week later, the Terps advance to their eighth straight NCAA Tournament berth and bring back to College Park the first Final Four banner in school history.

2002

Maryland defeats top-ranked Duke before a national television audience, 87-73, to take over first place in the ACC and mark the seventh time in Cole history that a No. 1 ranked team has been defeated.

Maryland beats Virginia 112-92 to win its first ACC regular season title since 1980, in what is the final game at Cole. A standing-room only crowd witnesses an emotional postgame event with returning All-Americans commemorating Cole's final game, followed by a net-cutting ceremony to celebrate the Terps' league title.

The NCAA Champion Terrapins return to Cole before a crowd of over 12,000 adoring fans, just hours after winning the first national championship in school history.

TERPS IN THE NBA DRAFT

Maryland's rising success under Gary Williams over the past 15 years has resulted in a growing number of Terrapin stars in the NBA ranks, and professionally overseas.

In the NBA specifically, the annual draft has become a barometer of Terrapin success, as Maryland has landed 15 players overall in the draft since Williams' return to College Park (an average of one per season) and eight draft picks since 1999 alone.

During Williams' 25-year career as a head coach, an incredible total of 28 players have been NBA draft choices.

In June of 2003, four-year point guard Steve Blake became the eighth Terp drafted over a five-year span with his selection in the second round by the Washington Wizards. In 2002, the Terps landed a pair of first round picks and three selections overall, as Chris Wilcox (8th, Los Angeles Clippers), Juan Dixon (17th, Washington Wizards) and Lonny Baxter (44th, Chicago Bulls) all were chosen from draft proceedings at Madison Square Garden. Wilcox, chosen eighth overall, was Maryland's first lottery pick since Steve Francis three years earlier. When Dixon was made the 17th pick of the draft, Maryland had placed two players in the first round for the first time since 1981.

Buoyed by three first and second round draft picks during the 1999 and 2002 NBA drafts, Maryland and Gary Williams have asserted themselves in recent years among the most prominent schools in developing NBA talent.

In '99, Steve Francis was chosen as the second pick of the first round, followed by second-round selections Obinna Ekezie and Laron Profit. One year later, Terence Morris was taken in the second round of the draft.

The Terps' NBA draft tally since 1999: eight draft picks, three first-round choices and two lottery selections.

What's more, Francis, the No. 2 pick in that '99 draft, went on to become the NBA's Co-Rookie of the Year. By the 2002 season, Francis was voted to the NBA All-Star Game.

Chosen on draft day by the Vancouver Grizzlies, Francis was traded in the preseason to the Houston Rockets for whom he led all NBA rookies with 6.6 steals in 1999-00, and was the second-leading rookie scorer with 18 points per game.

Had Francis been the No. 1 overall selection, Maryland would have become the first school in NBA history to have three No. 1 selections. Previously, John Lucas was the top pick by the Houston Rockets in 1976 and Joe Smith was picked first by the Golden State Warriors in 1995.

The Terps' 2002 draft windfall brought the number of all-time Maryland lottery selections to five — a number that is tied for ninth among all NCAA schools. Wilcox's selection brought the number of lottery selections at Maryland under head coach Gary Williams to four. Overall, seven Maryland players and nine overall since 1987 have played for Gary Williams and become first-round draft picks with guaranteed contracts.

"STRIVE FOR CLARITY, BUT ACCEPT AND UNDERSTAND AMBIGUITY.

That phrase captures one way in which an educated person approaches the world and its challenges. Students who graduate from the University of Maryland have been exposed to the tools that allow them to put that perspective to work. Imparting such a perspective may be an ambitious project for undergraduate education, but to aim for anything less would be unworthy of a great university's goals for its students. Thirteen years ago, Promises to Keep, a plan for undergraduate education at Maryland, articulated those goals so eloquently we repeat them here.

Undergraduate education at Maryland "aims to provide students with a sense of identity and purpose, a concern for others, a sense of responsibility for the quality of life around them, a continuing eagerness for knowledge and understanding, and a foundation for a lifetime of personal enrichment."

As we learn with and from one another, we try to "develop human values," "celebrate tolerance and fairness," "contribute to the social conscience," "monitor and assess private and collective assumptions," and "recognize the glory, tragedy and humor of the human condition." Your years at the University of Maryland can provide you with all the tools you need to accomplish these goals. Students here are "educated to be able to read with perception and pleasure, write and speak with clarity and verve, handle numbers and computation proficiently, reason mathematically, generate clear questions and find probable arguments, reach substantiated conclusions and accept ambiguity."

AND WE ALSO HOPE YOU ENJOY THE JOURNEY.

THE CAMPUS

By virtually every measure of quality, the University of Maryland has gained national recognition as one of the fastest-rising comprehensive research institutions in the country. The momentum of recent years has poised the university to move it into the top ranks of higher education and take leadership in shaping the research university of the 21st century.

The university has enjoyed a decade of momentum in all of the areas that affect quality. The average high school GPA of entering students has zoomed from 3.01 to nearly 3.90, and the average SATs are now more than 1270. The student body is a model of diversity, with minorities making up more than 33 percent of all students, and at least one graduate and undergraduate student from every state in the nation.

The university has 79 graduate and undergraduate programs ranked in the Top 25 by U.S. News and World Report, up from just one program in 1991.

Sponsored research and outreach has nearly tripled in the same 10-year period, exceeding $350 million last year. Private giving also has increased, and the university last year concluded its first campaign by topping its $350 million goal by more than $100 million. Alumni Association membership has been growing at an average rate of 10 percent a year since 1992.

One of the largest research universities in the United States, Fall 2005 enrollment was 25,442 undergraduate and 9,927 graduate students. There are 94 undergraduate programs, 89 master's programs, 70 doctoral programs and one first professional degree program. More than 100 centers and institutes are engaged in research and outreach.

Faculty at the University of Maryland, in all fields of knowledge, are engaged at the highest levels of national and international concern. The university's location near the center of federal policy-making and international political and economic activity enables it to play an active role in research and analysis of public policy.

Maryland is one of 30 public universities in the prestigious 63-member Association of American Universities and the only public institution in the Maryland-D.C. area with membership in the nation's most distinguished honor society, Phi Beta Kappa.

DID YOU KNOW?

In 1991, Maryland had one program listed among Top 25 entrants in the U.S. News & World Report Rankings. Maryland now has 79 programs ranked among the nation's elite, and the university is ranked 18th nationally among public universities.

A report card published in Technology Review rated the top U.S. universities in their quest for intellectual property, commercial partners and profits. Johns Hopkins University and the University of Maryland (28th) were the Mid-Atlantic (Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, District of Columbia) schools to make the "campus patenting" top 50 list.

Black Issues In Higher Education ranked the university fourth nationally in bachelor's degrees earned by African-American students at traditionally white schools. Maryland ranks first in African-American undergraduate degrees in social sciences and history.

The Wall Street Journal ranked the Robert H. Smith School of Business No. 15 a mong the world's business schools. Maryland is the top-ranked school in the Mid-Atlantic region (Delaware, Maryland, District of Columbia, Virginia). The Financial Times of London ranked the Robert H. Smith School of Business No. 3 in value for money, No. 6 overall among U.S. public business schools and No. 12 in placement rate.

In the undergraduate program rankings released by U.S. News & World Report both the A. James Clark School of Engineering (No. 22) and the Robert H. Smith School of Business (No. 22) were ranked among the top 25.

LIBRARIES

Seven libraries make up the University of Maryland library system: McKeldin (main) Library, Architecture Library, Art Library, Engineering and Physical Sciences Library, Hombake Library, Performing Arts Library and White Memorial (Chemistry) Library.

These libraries constitute the largest university research library institution in the Washington metropolitan area, providing vital resources to researchers, visiting scholars, and businesses throughout the region. The libraries' holdings include more than 2.5 million volumes, 24,000 subscriptions to periodicals and nearly 5 million items available in microfilm format.

RESEARCH

Opportunities for conducting research abound at the University of Maryland, College Park, and in the surrounding area, both for faculty to advance their own expertise and bring their insights into the classroom, and for students to begin their exploration of their unique interests with practical experience. On campus, special facilities and a number of organized research centers, bureaus and institutes promote the acquisition and analysis of new knowledge in the arts, sciences and applied fields.

The university's enviable location — just nine miles from downtown Washington, D.C., and approximately 30 miles from both Baltimore and Annapolis — enhances the research of its faculty and students by providing access to some of the finest libraries and research centers in the country.

SERVICE

Programs of public service are central to the overall mission of the university. The philosophy is reflected in the wide array of programs and initiatives that benefit the state's business, agriculture and education communities.

With more than 90 high-technology firms in the three-county area of Montgomery, Prince George's and Frederick counties, the university has found abundant opportunity to extend its business and technology outreach programs to the region. Many of these programs are part of the Engineering Research Center, which operates the Technology Advancement Program and the Maryland Industrial Partnerships, programs designed to provide Maryland entrepreneurs and small businesses with research facilities, technical assistance, administrative support and access to technology that will advance their economic base.

The Institute for Systems Research has formed partnerships with major corporations, including Lockheed Martin, Westinghouse, BF Goodrich, Hughes Aircraft and Dupont to apply advanced systems research to solving industry problems in the fields of communications, manufacturing, controls and robotics.

The university opened the Clarice Smith Performing Arts Center in 2001, with its six state-of-the art performance halls, which has quickly become a center of cultural programming in the Washington metropolitan area. The university also boasts four art galleries and a broad range of public art throughout the beautiful campus. Additionally intercollegiate, club and intramural sports provide students of all levels an opportunity to participate as spectators or athletes.

PRESIDENT C.D. MOTE JR.

In September 1998, C. D. (Dan) Mote, Jr. began his tenure as President of the University of Maryland and Glenn L. Martin Institute Professor of Engineering. He was recruited to lead the University of Maryland to national eminence under a mandate by the state. Since assuming the presidency, he has encouraged an environment of excellence across the University and given new impetus to the momentum generated by a talented faculty and student body. Under his leadership, academic programs have flourished. In 2005, the University was ranked 18th among public research universities, up from 30th in 1998. President Mote has emphasized broad access to the university's model, enriched undergraduate curriculum programs and launched the Baltimore Incentive Awards Program to recruit and provide full support to high school students of outstanding potential who have overcome extraordinary adversity during their lives.

He has spurred the university to lead the state in the development of its high-tech economy, especially in the information and communication, bioscience and biotechnology, and nano-technology sectors. President Mote has greatly expanded the university's partnerships with corporate and federal laboratories and successfully negotiated to bring to the College Park area the first Science Research Park sponsored by the People's Republic of China. Under his leadership, the University has established a research park, The University of Maryland Enterprise Campus, M-Square, located on a 115-acre site adjacent to the University of Maryland/College Park Metro with 3 million square feet of development potential. Among its first tenants are the Center for Advanced Study of Language, a joint venture of the University and Department of Defense, and the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration's new World Weather and Climate Prediction Center.

During President Mote's second year in office, the University began the largest building boom in its history, with more than $100 million in new projects breaking ground that year. New facilities address every aspect of university life, from the arts to recreation to classrooms and laboratories, and, in creative partnership with the private sector, new residential facilities. Highlights of the construction activity include the stunning Clarice Smith Performing Arts Center; the Comcast Center, a state of the art sports complex; a high tech research greenhouse; and new classrooms for chemistry, computer science, business and engineering. President Mote also led the development of a new Facilities Master Plan for development in the next 20 years, which is noted for its emphasis on environmental stewardship.

Dr. Mote is a leader in the national dialogue on higher education and his analyses of shifting funding models have been featured in local and national media. He has testified on major educational issues before Congress, representing the University and higher education associations on the problem of visa barriers for international students and scholars and on deemed export control issues. He has been asked to serve on a high level National Academies Committee appointed at the request of the Senate Energy Subcommittee of the Senate Energy and Natural Resources Committee to identify challenges to United States leadership in key areas of science and technology and to be a member of the Leadership Council of the National Innovation Initiative, an activity of the Council on Competitiveness. He has served as vice chair of the Department of Defense Basic Research Committee, and is a member of the Council of the National Academy of Engineering. In 2004-2005, he served as President of the Atlantic Coast Conference. In its last ranking in 2002, "Washington Business Forward" magazine counted him among the top 20 most influential leaders in the region.

Prior to assuming the Presidency at Maryland, Dr. Mote served on the University of California, Berkeley faculty for 31 years. From 1991 to 1998, he was Vice Chancellor at Berkeley, held an endowed chair in Mechanical Systems and was President of the UC Berkeley Foundation. He led a comprehensive capital campaign for Berkeley that raised $1.4 B. He earlier served as chair of Berkeley's Department of Mechanical Engineering and led the department to its number one ranking in the National Research Council review of graduate program effectiveness.

Dr. Mote's research lies in dynamic systems and biomechanics. Internationally recognized for his research on the dynamics of gyroscopic systems and the biomechanics of snow skiing, he has produced more than 300 publications, holds patents in the U.S., Norway, Finland and Sweden, and has mentored 56 Ph.D. students. He received the B.S., M.S. and Ph.D. in mechanical engineering from the University of California, Berkeley. President Mote has received numerous awards and honors, including the Humboldt Prize awarded by the Federal Republic of Germany. He is a recipient of the Berkeley Citation, an award from the University of California-Berkeley similar to the honorary doctorate, and was named Distinguished Engineering Alumnus. He has received two honorary doctorates. He is a member of the U.S. National Academy of Engineering and serves on its Council, and is a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences. He was elected to Honorary Membership in the ASME International, its most distinguished recognition, and is a Fellow of the International Academy of Wood Science, the Acoustical Society of America, and the American Association for the Advancement of Science. In Spring 2005, he was named recipient of the 2005 J. P. Den Hartog award by the ASME International Technical Committee on Vibration and Sound to honor his lifelong contribution to the teaching and/or practice of vibration engineering. In Fall 2005, he received the 2005 Founders Award from the National Academy of Engineering in recognition of his comprehensive body of work on the dynamics of moving flexible structures and for leadership in academia.

He and his wife of over 40 years, Patricia Mote, have two married children, Melissa and Adam, and four grandchildren. Patsy Mote has continued her strong support of the arts and is spokesperson for the Clarice Smith Performing Arts Center and a member of Prince George's County Arts Commission.

DEBORAH A. YOW

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS • 13TH YEAR AT MARYLAND

Deborah A. Yow is in the 13th year of her outstanding tenure as director of athletics at the University of Maryland, a tenure that has seen unprecedented success and achievement in Maryland athletics. Each year has brought steady and continued improvement and accomplishment in Terrapin athletics. In Yow's 12 years at Maryland, the Terrapins have won a remarkable 13 national championships and graduated student-athletes at an enviable rate as Maryland athletics has soared to sustained new heights among the nation's elite intercollegiate athletic programs.

The comprehensive success of Terrapin athletics under Debbie Yow's leadership is a clear and compelling testimony of her values of excellence, teamwork and accountability.

Likewise, her prior election to the presidency of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics is an indication of the wide respect with which she is regarded among its 6,100 members representing 1,600 colleges and universities in the U.S. and Canada.

She was honored recently by Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal as one of the 20 most influential people in intercollegiate athletics and she has received the Carl Maddox Sport Management Award presented by the United States Sports Academy for excellence in athletics administration.

Dr. Yow was selected to serve on the U.S. Department of Education's Commission on Opportunities in Athletics to review the status of Federal Title IX regulations. She recently served as the chair of the Atlantic Coast Conference Committee on Television. The committee is charged with overseeing the league's TV contracts and dealing with issues related to television. Yow led the committee during the successful renegotiation of comprehensive, multi-year ACC football and basketball contracts with ABC, ESPN, ESPN2 and syndication entities.

Additionally, she has represented intercollegiate athletics with presentations in a number of prominent settings such as the Harvard University School of Law conference on "Shaping the Future of Collegiate Athletics" and the Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal "National Forum on the Direction of Intercollegiate Athletics" in New York. She was also recently inducted into the State of Maryland Women's Hall of Fame and the North Carolina Sports Hall of Fame, joining fellow Terp Buck Williams as honorees.

Yow, who has served on the NCAA Management Council and the NCAA Division I Budget Committee, is a strong and steady voice on behalf of intercollegiate athletics in America.

Since taking over as AD at Maryland in 1994, she and her staff have:

- Transformed Terrapin athletics into a responsive, goal-oriented organization with 27 sports and more than 700 student-athletes.
- Balanced all 12 of the department's annual budgets (none of the budgets were balanced in the 10 years prior to her arrival). The budget has now reached $52 million annually and the multi-million dollar accumulated operating debt which her administration inherited has been eradicated.
- Greatly enhanced the academic support services provided for student-athletes, with an enviable exhausted eligibility graduation rate of approximately 85 percent for student athletes at Maryland.
- Led the Terrapins to a national all-sports ranking in the upper 7 percent of all NCAA Division I institutions.
- Significantly expanded marketing and fund-raising efforts on behalf of Terrapin athletics. As a result, private gifts to athletics have increased over 350 percent and corporate sponsorship revenues have increased by over 300 percent during her tenure at Maryland.
- Continued to dramatically improve venues and facilities for the department's 27 teams. The Comcast Center for men's and women's basketball and other sports that use the facility is a prime example of the dramatic upgrade of athletic facilities.

IN DECEMBER OF 2004, DEBORAH A. YOW WAS NAMED ONE OF THE MOST INFLUENTIAL PEOPLE IN COLLEGE ATHLETICS BY *STREET & SMITH'S SPORTS BUSINESS JOURNAL.

1 TEAM

- Implemented a strategic management model.
- Developed a comprehensive Internet strategy with management, marketing and fund-raising applications.
- Significantly improved customer care in every area of Maryland athletics.

The most recent achievements of Maryland athletics are exceptional:

- Maryland captured a remarkable four national championships during the 2005-06 academic season.
- In 2005-2006, the Terrapins achieved the highest student-athlete graduation rate in the history of Maryland athletics.

Yow is known for her goal-oriented and proactive management style. She consistently inspires and challenges those around her to "raise our sights and sharpen our tools... to work hard and work smart... to recognize that our only limitations are those that we place upon ourselves."

As a manager and a leader, she clearly models these principles. She is the only known current AD in NCAA Division I who has hired both the National Coach of the Year in football (while at Maryland) and the National Coach of the Year in men's basketball (while at Saint Louis University). In 2002, she brought to the University of Maryland Brenda Frese, who at that time was the National Coach of the Year in women's basketball. Four years later, Frese led the Terrapins to the NCAA National Championship at the Women's Final Four in Boston.

Dr. Yow is known as "a coach's AD," while also being highly organized and a strategic and proactive leader and administrator. Quite simply, Debbie Yow personifies the relational and management dynamics that are necessary to be an excellent administrator.

A successful former basketball coach at the University of Kentucky and University of Florida, she moved into athletics administration at the University of Florida and the University of North Carolina, Greensboro, followed by a successful tenure as AD at Saint Louis University from 1990 through 1994.

She has authored numerous articles and books on athletics management and human behavior, and is a respected leader in intercollegiate athletics in the United States.

Summing up the entire Maryland athletics program, our athletics director recently stated, "We have the finest student-athletes, coaches, support staff and administrative team in America. It is because of their courage, hard work and cooperative spirit that we now have a strong, viable athletic program. I am immensely proud of each of them. I am equally proud of our Terrapin fans who buy tickets, our Terrapin Club members who faithfully support the Maryland athletic program with their donations for scholarships, and the M Club members who serve and give liberally. We are also blessed with a terrific President, Dr. Dan Mote, who has fostered a mindset of excellence across our institution. He is a strong and balanced advocate for what he calls 'the three A's of the University -- Academics, the Arts and Athletics'. We have a great Terrapin family. That's the foundation for all of our success... and the basis for our bright future. It's a great time to be a Terp."

Terrapin student-athletes will find that the same hard work and discipline that has earned them success in athletics competition is also required in the classroom. Balancing the significant time demands and responsibilities required to be a successful student-athlete at the highest collegiate level is no small task. Therefore, as a result of their commitment to representing the university through athletics, Terrapin student-athletes are able to utilize support programs designed to meet their specific needs.

Led by associate athletics director Anton Goff, the mission of the Academic Support and Career Development Unit (ASCDU) is to provide quality developmental programs and need-based services that will enhance academic progress, facilitate career development, and encourage the psychosocial growth of all UM student-athletes. Michael Heflin (right) works with the men's basketball team.

The Gossett Academic Support and Career Development Center for Terrapin student-athletes, named for long-time Terp supporters Barry and Mary Gossett, is located in the Comcast Center. It features a study center that includes 25 desktop computers, a tutoring center, a classroom, a CHAMPS/Life Skills resource room and individual offices for six professional academic counselors, a director of enrichment programs, an assistant program coordinator and two graduate assistants. In addition, a new academic wing was added to the Gossett football team house last Fall. It features offices for two counselors, a program assistant and the learning specialist; as well as a quiet study area, 29-desk computer lab, classroom, tutor rooms and classroom/lab for the individualized learning program.

Academic courses, programs and services offered by ASCDU include the following:

- Student-athlete orientation
- Academic counseling
- NCAA academic eligibility monitoring
- Academic enrichment and career development presentations and workshops
- Accredited tutorial support
- Individualized learning program
- EDCP 108-K (College learning strategies and skills)

MARYLAND GAMEPLAN

The Maryland Gameplan is intended to assist graduating Terrapin student-athletes as they begin the job search process. It is distributed to more than 500 corporations and businesses across the country, in addition to being featured on the M Club website. Prospective employers are introduced to our graduating student-athletes with resume information relative to academic, career and personal achievements. The Maryland Gameplan directory is produced annually in collaboration with the M Club.

CAREER NETWORKING NIGHT

Because career development is an ongoing process, ASCDU provides a variety of programs for student-athletes throughout the year. Professional assistance with resume-writing, interviewing skills, graduate school search and job search is readily available to all student-athletes. During the spring semester ASCDU hosts the Career Networking Night, where student-athletes can learn about career interests and career planning. Unlike typical "job fairs," the purpose of this program is to allow student-athletes to explore multiple career opportunities by speaking directly to individuals in their chosen areas of interest. Employers at the Career Networking Night recognize the marketable qualities student-athletes have gained through athletic participation. Student-athletes learn about opportunities for internships and full-time jobs.

STUDENT-ATHLETE ADVISORY COUNCIL

The Student-Athlete Advisory Council (S.A.A.C.) plays an important role in the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics. It consists of two representatives from each varsity sport and meets on a regular basis with representatives from the athletic administration. The S.A.A.C. mission is to enhance the total student-athlete experience by developing leadership skills, promoting student-athlete welfare and fostering a positive student-athlete image on the Maryland campus, local area and nationally.

CHAMPS/LIFE SKILLS PROGRAMS

ASCDU houses the NCAA's (National Collegiate Athletic Association) Challenging Athletes' Minds for Personal Success (C.H.A.M.P.S.) Life Skills Program. The ASCDU staff, in collaboration with various other Department of Intercollegiate Athletics' units and campus resources, strives to provide a systematic personal development program designed to reach each student-athlete based on his or her individual needs. The focus of the program is on the individual academically, athletically and emotionally, and on the changing needs and skills of that individual in the years during college and after graduation. The menu of presentations, workshops and seminars is a comprehensive and balanced system of "life learning" programs promoted for use by each varsity sport team.

NCAA CHAMPS/Life Skills™ PROGRAM

Highlights of the CHAMPS/Life Skills Programs:

- Support efforts of every student-athlete toward intellectual development and graduation
- Use athletics as preparation for success in life
- Meet the changing needs of student-athletes
- Promote respect for diversity among student-athletes
- Enhance interpersonal relationships in the lives of student-athletes
- Assist student-athletes in building positive self-esteem
- Enable student-athletes to make meaningful contributions to their communities
- Promote ownership by the student-athletes of their academic, athletic, personal and social responsibilities

ACADEMIC SUPPORT FOR RETURNING ATHLETES PROGRAM

The Academic Support for Returning Athletes Program was created in 1986 to support the academic efforts of former varsity student-athletes at the University of Maryland, College Park. In 1989, ASRAP was assigned by the President's Office to the Academic Achievements Program and enrolled 40 students that year. As a member of the National Consortium for Academics and Sports (NCAS), the University of Maryland is committed to assisting its former athletes with degree completion. A key component of the program is community outreach. Each returning student completes a "workship" that allows the cost of tuition and fees to be exchanged for community services with youth. In 2002, ASRAP moved into the ASCDU.

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

In the highly competitive world of collegiate basketball, the off-court preparation of the basketball athlete is a critical component in the on-court success of any Division I program. Pete Yurish, Maryland's strength and conditioning coach for men's basketball, believes strongly that a solid off-court training program can dramatically improve levels of performance, as well as significantly reduce the chance of injury. The benefit of performing structured strength and power training throughout the entire year has allowed the Terps to reach new levels in physical development and, in turn, has resulted in great success on the basketball court.

Pete Yurish

Yurish's philosophy consists of allowing the players to gain strength, speed and change of direction capabilities through drills that are basketball oriented. He believes that the team must be prepared to run and play the up-tempo style of basketball that is Gary Williams' trademark. Yurish trains the team so that it will be able to play up to Williams' style.

The Terps' new state-of-the-art weight room at Comcast Center.

The members of the men's basketball team have the use of a fully-equipped weight training facility located down the hall from the men's basketball office and the team's locker room in Comcast Center. The conveniently located 4,000 sqare foot facility features a combination of Sorinex weight training equipment and York free weight equipment. The strength staff utilizes this facility specifically during the season as basketball team members are personally trained before, during and after the season.

SPORTS MEDICINE

The University of Maryland Department of Intercollegiate Athletics and the University of Maryland Medical Center's Sports Medicine program have joined forces to provide the best possible medical attention and care to all Terrapin student-athletes.

Says Deborah A. Yow, Maryland's director of athletics: "When we recruit student-athletes to play for Maryland, we owe them the best education, the best coaching and the best comprehensive health care. It is especially gratifying for us to partner with our medical center in the same fashion as other ACC institutions do with their medical schools."

THE M CLUB
AN 83-YEAR TRADITION OF "ATHLETES HELPING ATHLETES"SM

The M Club was founded in 1923 by a group of former University of Maryland athletes led by Dr. H.C. "Curley" Byrd to encourage excellence in athletics. It is one of the oldest and most respected letterwinner clubs in the country with an organization of more than 4,500 former Maryland varsity athletes and a leader in the National Letter Winners Association.

The M Club goals are to help achieve the very best overall academic and athletic program for all the varsity teams, to aid the athletes in making positive contributions to the community, to obtain and maintain funds for awards and scholarships and to cultivate networking, social contact and good sportsmanship among the wearers of the "M."

Membership participation, through the payment of annual dues, helps build the scholarship endowment fund, support student-athletes' awards and recognition efforts and provide for career development initiatives. Members receive information about the current teams and news about former teammates through a monthly electronic newsletter and a quarterly printed newsletter.

In addition, active members receive information about, and discounts for, various M Club activities. Many benefits are intangible, though, including the satisfaction of having lettered at a great university and being a part of a unique and exclusive organization that is nationally recognized.

University of Maryland letterwinners interested in the M Club should call David Diehl at (301) 314-5372 or Dotti Warren at (301) 314-7020, or visit our website at www.themclub.org.

MAJOR GIFTS FUNDRAISING

The University of Maryland recently launched its largest-ever fund raising effort in the quest to be one of the nation's great public research universities. Great Expectations: The Campaign for Maryland is the linchpin to the University's transformation from excellence to greatness.

To solidify our position as one of the premier athletics programs in the Atlantic Coast Conference and the nation, the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics will have a challenging, major goal for private donations for the campaign. During the Great Expectations campaign, Maryland Athletics will seek to raise a total of $133 million to (1) enhance and improve competition, practice and training facilities for a number of our teams; (2) fund annual scholarships for student athletes; and (3) endow student athlete scholarships, coaching positions and programs.

Planned facility construction projects for Maryland Athletics are:

Enhancements to Chevy Chase Bank Field at Byrd Stadium, which include the construction of premium seating, containing over 50 suites of varying sizes, along the south sideline; upscale common areas containing lounge, restrooms and elevators; a Presidential Suite with seating for 200; additional mezzanine seating for approximately 500, including food service, heat and covered seating; new work area for television, radio and print media; new work area for coaches and game day operating staff; and enhanced seating for disabled customers. We also will install railings in the South and North lower bowl seats to enhance fan comfort and safety; and will lower the field at Byrd Stadium to improve sight lines for seats on the first 10 rows, converting those seats from obstructed view seats to some of the best views in the stadium. These projects will create a significantly improved Chevy Chase Bank Field at Byrd Stadium.

Renovation of the Varsity Team House, which houses team locker rooms, sports medicine and strength and conditioning areas for the baseball, men's lacrosse, men's and women's soccer, and men's and women's track & field teams.

Improvements to Ludwig Field and Kehoe Track, the competition site for men's and women's soccer, men's lacrosse, and men's and women's track & field teams.

Construction of a golf short game practice facility for the men's and women's golf teams.

Creating a winter indoor practice facility at the lowered field at Byrd Stadium that will service all of our field teams during the inclement weather months.

Private gifts to Maryland Athletics will help us reach our facility, scholarship and endowment goals for the Great Expectations campaign. Major gifts for facility renovation and scholarship endowment are an opportunity to have your name permanently and prominently linked with the tradition of Maryland Athletics. Many exciting naming opportunities for athletic facilities (such as the Soccer/Track Stadium, Field Hockey/Women's Lacrosse Stadium, and the Auxiliary Gym in Comcast Center) are available in recognition of major gifts.

To obtain information on facility naming opportunities or endowments for student athlete scholarships, please contact the Athletics Major Gifts Office at (301) 314-7020, or toll-free at (800) 653-7667, or by email at terrapinclub@umd.edu.

JOHNNY HOLLIDAY

PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER
28TH YEAR

Johnny Holliday, now in his 28th year as "Voice of the Terps," is considered one of the finest play-by-play announcers in the country. In addition to calling the action for the Maryland basketball and football teams, Holliday hosts the Gary Williams and Ralph Friedgen television shows. As the Terps' director of broadcasting, he also handles a myriad of speaking duties within the athletics department, ranging from banquets to golf outings.

In addition to his exploits calling Terrapin contests, Holliday also hosts the Ralph Friedgen and Gary Williams Television and Radio Shows as well as a myriad of other athletics department speaking engagements.

Now in his 25th year with ABC Sports Radio and heard nationwide weekday mornings, Holliday's experiences in entertainment are as notable as those in sports. He was a long-time disc jockey in Cleveland, Ohio, once named the nation's premier DJ. He has had leading roles as an actor in musicals working the summer stock and dinner theatre circuit in shows such as The Music Man, 42nd Street and Bye Bye Birdie to name a few. In addition, he penned an autobiography in 2002, From Rock to Jock, which details his rise to one of the nation's most recognizable voices. His most recent book titled Maryland Hoops Tales, was released in the fall of 2006.

In the sports field, his credits include anchoring the radio coverage of every summer and winter Olymics since 1984 for ABC, major golf tournaments, the Orioles, Bullets, Wizards and Washington Senators to name a few.

A Rock and Roll Hall of Fame inductee (2003), Holliday earned a Distinguished Service Award from the Atlantic Coast Conference for his pioneering work in the league's broadcasts of women's basketball. He has also been named one of the top 16 radio announcers for college basketball by ESPN personality Dick Vitale. And when Washingtonian Magazine named him one of their annual Washingtonians of the Year, it was not just because of his voice. Holliday has helped raise in excess of $1.5 million for charity with his basketball and softball teams as well as spent countless hours working with the Special Olympics, March of Dimes, the Catholic Charities, Operation Smile and Victory Youth Center to name a few. In 1998, he was honored by the Greater Washington, D.C. chapter of Operation Smile with the "Smile Award" recognizing his service while in 1995 he earned Maryland's own M Club Distinguished Citizen Award. In 2006 he earned the CYO National Person of the Year award, along with the Diabetes Association Father of the Year award.

A native of Miami, Fla., Holliday began his broadcasting career in Perry, Ga., and has worked in some of the nation's premier markets – Cleveland, New York, San Francisco and Washington. He and his wife, Mary Clare, are the proud parents of three daughters and grandparents seven children. His daughter Kellie is a physician who resides in Bel Air, Md., with her husband and fellow-physician, Steve; Tracie is a neonatal nurse at Shady Grove Hospital who resides in Potomac with husband Chris, an attorney; and Moira who is a freelance TV producer and resides with her husband, Bob, who is an account executive with the Lending Group, in Jacksonville, Fla.

CHRIS KNOCHE

COLOR ANALYST
EIGHTH YEAR

Chris Knoche, a former player and head coach at American University who has worked in radio and television for the past seven years, is in his eighth season as the color analyst for the Terp men's basketball radio broadcasts.

Knoche spent 17 seasons at American, playing the 1979-80 and '80-81 seasons under current Terp coach Gary Williams before moving into an assistant coaching position and later serving seven seasons (1991-97) as the Eagles' head coach.

Prior to joining Maryland's broadcast crew, he worked 40-50 games each of the previous two seasons as a color commentator, including stints on the Ivy League Game of the Week on Westwood One/CBS Radio and Ivy League Game of the Week for DirecTV and for HDTV. He has also worked telecasts for ESPN and CSN, in addition to doing radio and television analysis for George Mason University games. Currently he makes regular guest appearances on the highly rated "The Sports Reporters" on Sportstalk 980 in Washington, D.C.

"Chris Knoche brings an outstanding background as a player, coach and fan to our basketball broadcasts," said Williams, the Terps' 16th-year head coach. "Being able to work with Johnny Holliday, Chris provides the opportunity for Maryland fans to listen to someone who has very good experience as a color commentator. More important, he is someone who has a great feel for the game of basketball. I have known Chris as a player and a coach for more than 20 years. He has been an exciting addition to our basketball program."

PRIORITIES:

1. Originating radio and television personnel involved in a live television or radio broadcast of a University of Maryland intercollegiate athletic competition.
2. Daily newspapers, wire services, and regional and national publications that regularly and substantially report on University of Maryland intercollegiate athletic competitions.
3. Non-originating radio and television personnel producing reports on a University of Maryland intercollegiate athletic competition. Only local radio stations with a full-time sports director conducting a regular and substantial sports show reporting on University of Maryland intercollegiate athletic competitions receive consideration for credentials.
4. Officially recognized University of Maryland daily student publications and daily student electronic media outlets that regularly and substantially report on University of Maryland intercollegiate athletic competitions; and official websites of Atlantic Coast Conference schools, non-conference opponents, and the Atlantic Coast Conference office.
5. Non-daily newspapers or publications that regularly and substantially report on University of Maryland intercollegiate athletic competitions.
6. Online entities that meet the requirements set out in guideline number 7, below.

GUIDELINES:

1. Season media credentials are issued to those organizations that report on University of Maryland intercollegiate athletic competitions on a regular and substantial basis, as outlined above. Issuance of season media credentials does not guarantee working space in media work areas.
2. With the exception of Terrapin beat reporters reporting on the team on a daily basis and producing daily reports, all passes are approved and issued on a game-by-game basis.
3. Except as otherwise provided for in this Policy, all passes and credentials are non-transferable and are subject to immediate revocation if transferred to any other person, including non-working members of a media organization.
4. Due to limited space and to ensure compliance with NCAA guidelines, credentials will not be issued to "free-lance" writers or photographers without a specific assignment received in writing by the assigning organization.
5. The University of Maryland and the NCAA prohibit the issuance of credentials to representatives of an organization that regularly publishes gambling information, such as "tout sheets" or "tip sheets."
6. Credentials may be issued to the official websites of Atlantic Coast Conference schools, non-conference opponents, and the Atlantic Coast Conference office.
7. Credentials may be issued to other online entities that: a) are affiliated with a national or regional media organization; b) host a website that regularly and substantially reports on University of Maryland intercollegiate athletics, and; c) employ for that University of Maryland dedicated website at least one full-time, permanent employee who writes a substantial majority of all material posted on the site. An online entity that is a outlet primarily devoted to the recruitment of students athletes will not qualify for credentials.
8. All persons picking up credentials will be required to furnish positive identification. No credentials will be issued to individuals under the age of 18.
9. Media Relations may deny or revoke credentials for noncompliance with the Priorities or Guidelines set out in this Policy; for violations of University, Department of Intercollegiate Athletics, NCAA, or ACC policies; and for conduct for which there are reasonable grounds to believe violate state or federal law, or constitute a breach of professional ethics. Any organization that wishes to contest a denial or revocation shall: a) request Media Relations provide a written rationale for the denial or revocation; b) submit a written response to that rationale to the Associate Athletic Director for Media Relations. After reviewing the response, the Associate Athletic Director for a Media Relations, in consultation with appropriate University officials, shall issue a decision to uphold or reverse the denial or revocation. The Associate Athletic Director's decision shall be final.

PHOTOGRAPHY REGULATIONS

All photographers and camera operators must remain seated in baseline photo areas, as per NCAA regulations. Locations will be assigned for more crowded games. Photographer and videographer positions are at the complete and absolute discretion of the basketball game officials and the Maryland media relations office at all times, without exception.

The NCAA has established a policy to control congestion in photography areas. Priority shall be given, in all instances, to photographers and videographers on assignment. Only game photographers (no runners, assistants or producers) shall have access to courtside photo areas.

Strobe lights may be installed in Comcast Center, but arrangements must be made through the media relations office two weeks in advance. Space for strobe lights is available on a first-come, first-served basis.

PRESS SEATING AND MEDIA WORK ROOM

The courtside press area and work room both are at the northeast corner of the arena. Both are available for working media only.

Working space in the press area of Comcast Center is limited and seats are expressly reserved for those working on deadline, with no exceptions. Children and other non-workers are not allowed in the press area.

Located on the court level of Comcast Center, the work room is directly across from the men's basketball locker room and directly behind the courtside press area. They are connected by the tunnel area adjacent to the loading dock and service entrance on the arena's northeast corner.

A limited number of long distance phone lines are available in the work room on a first-come, first-served basis, and require a credit card for billing. Dedicated phone lines in the courtside press area are available by placing an advance order with Scott Sargent, Asst. Director of Operations and Facilities, at 301-314-9729.

The work room opens well before game time and media representatives are welcome upon arrival at the arena. A pregame food service is served buffet style. A halftime beverage service is also available. The pregame buffet is available one hour before tipoff.

TELEPHONES

Six complimentary phone lines are available in the Comcast Center press work room, as dictated by ACC policy (calling card or reverse charges required). Additional requests for dedicated lines, either for the work room or courtside, should be directed to Scott Sargent, Asst. Director of Operations and Facilities, at 301-314-9729. List Mark Fratto as the contact for all installations.

POSTGAME PRESS CONFERENCE

Postgame press conferences for both head coaches will be conducted at the conclusion of each game.

The Maryland locker room is open to credentialed media for a brief period after Coach Williams concludes his comments to the media. The visiting team's locker room access policy is determined by officials of that school.

POSTGAME STATISTICS

A statistics packet including running play-by-play, first half and final box scores, and postgame notes and home and visitor head coach quotes, are compiled for each game and made available to the media at press row and in the media work room.

E-MAIL SERVICES

Basketball releases may be obtained electronically by contacting Jason Yaman at jyaman@umd.edu.

IN-SEASON INTERVIEW POLICIES

Maryland players and head coach Gary Williams will be available for interviews with accredited members of the media throughout the season. All interview requests must be made through the media relations office, contacting Jason Yaman. Please give 24 hours notice.

Players' individual phone numbers will not be given to the media. Players will not be available for live call-in radio shows.
